Tujuan penelitian ini adalah untuk mengetahui apakah pendekatan membaca luas dapat meningkatkan kemampuan pemahaman membaca siswa. Peneliti menyadari bahwa pendekatan membaca luas dapat menjadi salah satu pendekatan dalam proses belajar mengajar. Karena pendekatan membaca luas merupakan suatu pemahaman strategi pendekatan membaca.

Penelitian ini merupakan jenis penelitian tindakan kelas dan dilakukan dengan dua siklus. Setiap siklus terdiri dari tiga pertemuan. Selanjutnya penelitian ini terdiri dari empat langkah yaitu perencanaan, akting, pengamatan, dan refleksi. Dalam penelitian ini, peneliti menggunakan metode pengumpulan data antara lain tes, observasi, dokumentasi. Setelah menganalisa dan mengolah data, penggunaan pendekatan membaca luas dapat membuat siswa-siswa menjadi lebih aktif dan lebih berantusias untuk mengikuti proses belajar mengajar.

Berdasarkan hasil penelitian, nilai rata-rata pada pre test 53,85 menjadi 63,86 pada post test di siklus I menjadi 75 di post test siklus II. Hal tersebut menandakan bahwa adanya peningkatan nilai rata-rata setelah melakukan atau menggunakan pendekatan membaca luas dalam proses belajar dan mengajar. Dapat disimpulkan bahwa pendekatan membaca luas dapat meningkatkan kemampuan membaca siswa kelas 10 di SMA N 1 Raman Utara Lampung Timur.

INTRODUCTION

A. Background of Study

Language is a system of arbitrary conventionalized vocal, written, or gestural symbol that enable members of a given community to communicate intelligibly with one another. Many languages are used in the world, one of which is English. Nowadays, it has become an international language that is almost used by all country as the first, the second or the foreign language. Moreover, it has been declared as a formal language on international communication for a long time ago.

English is one of the languages in the world. English is an international language that can be used as an instrument to write important information and knowledge. English has become more and more important in the world. It is used in the international communication or in the international conference. English is not only useful for the present time, but also for the future. Some students from many places around the world learn English. Since it is considered as international language, learning English has become a necessity for everyone who wants to involve in international interaction. However, mastering this language is not easy to do. But if we know nothing about

English, of course it will be very hard for us to prevent our existence in modern world.

In Indonesia, English is the second foreign language and it becomes one of the major subjects that should be taught by all students. Nowadays, Indonesian Department of Education also takes this language as one of the must subject of the formal education that must be learned by all learners in Indonesia. There are four skills that should be taught to the student at the school, namely listening, speaking, reading and writing.

Reading is not easy to be learned because it needs maximal reading skill. Many problem that faced by reader when they want to achieve a purpose of reading. Those problem are about reading habit, reading technique, motivation and reading interest. Motivation is needed by reader to read texts or books. Unfortunately, most of readers do not have motivation to read, they think that reading is something bore. Reading is very important because by mastering reading skill, people can get information and add their knowledge from the text. There are many different purposes for reading. Sometimes we read a text to learn materials, sometimes we read for pure pleasure, and sometimes we need to follow a set of directions. As a student, much of reading will be to learn assigned material.

In fact, many students have some difficulties in reading comprehension on Descriptive text especially at the students' of Senior high school. In this case, the writer interested in focusing her attention on students' mastery of reading especially in descriptive text. Descriptive text is a text which say what a person or a thing is like. Its purpose is to describe and reveal a particular person, place, or thing. It is as media to teaching reading comprehension. As media, descriptive text is expected can make students more active again in teaching learning process. Because media can help the teacher sending material to their students so that can be easy to understand by them.

A lot of ways can be used by the teacher to help in learning process descriptive text. One of them is extensive reading. Based on the problems stated above, the researcher believes that the students need effort to facilitate them to comprehend English text well, especially in Descriptive text. the researcher uses extensive reading because of several reason. Extensive reading is the reading of large amounts of materials, the materials are easy to understand, it is usually done outside the classroom and the students read at their comfort zone.

Student's Reading Score

Score	Frequency	Percentage
$\leq 65$	15	46%
$\geq 65$	9	37%
Total

Source: Teacher's archive, English Reading Score at the Tenth position of SMA N 1 Raman Utara

The pre-survey was done on April 25th, 2017. They were 24 students at the tenth grade at SMA N 1 Raman Utara. The English minimum passing grade in this school is 65. It means that the student who get the score  $\leq 65$  don't pass examination. In fact, there only 4 students who got 65- 74 or 17%, 11 students got score 55-64 or 46% and 9 students got 0- 54 or 37%. The average score is 66 the total of students, it can be concluded that students' reading score at tenth grade is still low.

Based on the pre-survey result above the students have problems in learning activity, especially in reading subject, those are : 1) students do not have much motivation a read the English text; 2) students have low ability in comprehending the meaning of the text; 3) students do not know how to read a text reading well; 4) most of students find the difficult in reading comprehension; and 5) students have low vocabulary.

Realizing the demand that the students are hoped to master in reading comprehension, the researcher should help the students to overcome the problem or to minimize the problem. Dealing with this case the researcher interested in finding out an effective way in teaching English. Especially in developing students' reading comprehension in Descriptive text through Extensive Reading Technique.

B. Problem Identification

Based on the explanation above, the researcher identifies the problem as follows:

1. The students have low motivation in learning English.

2. Most of the students have low in reading comprehension.
3. The students have difficulties to comprehension the English text.

C. Problem Limitation

The writer will conduct the research in the Tenth Grader because they have low reading comprehension. Therefore the writer limits the problem only the “improving the students reading comprehension in descriptive text through extensive reading technique at tenth grader of SMAN 1 Raman Utara”.

D. Problem Formulation

The writer formulates the problem as follow :

1. Can the Extensive Reading technique improve the students’ reading comprehension in descriptive text at the tenth grader of SMAN 1 Raman Utara Central Lampung?
2. How far the Extensive Reading technique can improve the students’ reading comprehension of descriptive text at the tenth grader of SMAN 1 Raman Utara Central Lampung?

E. Objectives and Benefit of Study

1. Objectives of the study

The objective of the writer is:

- a. To know the level of the students’ reading comprehension of descriptive text at the tenth grader of SMAN 1 Raman Utara Central Lampung.

- b. To know how far the extensive reading technique to improve the students' reading comprehension of descriptive text at the tenth grader of SMAN 1 Raman Utara Central Lampung.

2. Benefits of the study

a. For the students

- 1) To help the students to enjoy the process of English learning in the class.
- 2) To enable the students to understand learning English easily.
- 3) To enable the students to get good achievement in learning English.
- 4) The students will know more the importance of the extensive reading technique in their learning process, so that they can improve their achievement.

b. For the teacher

- 1) To give information about a technique in learning English especially extensive reading for a teacher.
- 2) To help the teacher to choose appropriate technique in teaching English materials.

c. For the researcher

This research is expected as a contribution for other researchers to conduct the further studies.

CHAPTER II

THEORETICAL FRAMEWORK

A. Concept of Reading Comprehension

1. Definition of Reading

Reading is the activity to read, that has a purpose to get information from the reading material. If we want to learn language especially English, we have to study reading because reading is very important to get information when learn English as a foreign language.

If we understand the concept of reading, it can be easy for us to get information or ideas when we read something. Willis explain that reading is not a natural part of human development. It is part of skills in learning language that is effective to learn to improve language development. Reading gives way for human to get information about something even though it is not natural part of human development.<sup>1</sup>

Etymologically, in oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary is the word of reading derived from the word “read” that can be defined as follows; a) to look at and understand the meaning of written or printed words or symbol. b) To go through written or printed word, silently or a loud to other. c) To discover or find out about somebody or something by reading.<sup>2</sup>

Terminologically, there are some expert that have different definitions for reading, but here the write will take several definitions according to the experts as follows;

Reading is one of four language skills. It is categorized into the area a receipted skill. This category is a skill to comprehend a piece of information in the written language.<sup>3</sup>

Reading is cognitive activity takes places rapidly and privately in our mind.<sup>4</sup> Reading is the meaningful interpretation of printed written verbal symbols. Reading is a result of interaction between the perception of graphic symbols that represent language and the reader's language skill, cognitive skills, and knowledge of the word. In this process the readers tries to re-create the meaning intended by the writer.<sup>5</sup>

Reading is not only cognitive activity, it is also complex process in which the recognition and comprehension of written symbols are influenced by readers' perceptual skills, decoding skills, experiential background, mind sets, and reasoning abilities as they anticipate meaning on the basic of what they have read. The total process is gestalt, or whole; a serious flaw in may prevent adequate performance.<sup>6</sup>

Moreover, Jane states that “ Reading is the active thinking process of understanding an author's ideas, connecting those ideas to what you already know, and then organizing all the ideas so you can remember and use them".<sup>7</sup>

It means that reading is an activity that used to understand something by written or printed word and the way to know more about something to get information from organizing the ideas of the passage. Reading is receipted skill. It is a skill to comprehend a piece of information in the written language.<sup>8</sup> In other word, to gain the messages conveyed by a writer in his/her texts; we must read them well.

Furthermore, Anthony, Pearson, and Raphael in Thomas S.C Farrell state that reading is the process of constructing meaning through the dynamic interaction among the reader's existing knowledge, the information suggested by the written language, and the context of the reading situation.<sup>9</sup>

Based on the quotation above, the writer can make a conclusion that reading is the act or activity of reading aloud written to get the meaning or what the writer want and to get information of the text. Reading is used ease people get information from the text, book, magazine, newspaper, and other. with reading the learners can also improve their skills in learning English exactly.

2. The Models of Reading

A reading model is a graphic attempt “to depict how an individual perceives a word, processes a clause, and comprehends a text.”<sup>10</sup> It means that reading describes the people to process a word and sentences and analyze it. There are three models of reading as follows:

1) Top-down model

Based on Albert J Harris and R. Sipay state “in top-down models the reader’s prior knowledge and cognitive and linguistic competence play key roles in the construction of meaning”.<sup>11</sup> It means that top-down models describe the process of reading. The reader’s predictions about the text are rejected, confirmed, and refined. The reader plays an active role in the process; it is believed to supply more information than the printed materials.

From the explanation above, it is clear that in the top-down model, the process of comprehension deals with the background knowledge to predict the meaning of the text. It means that a reader will read a text by reading the sentence, then tries to find the information by guessing the meaning.

2) Bottom-up models

Reading based on bottom-up models is essentially a process of translating graphic symbols into speech during oral reading or into inner speech during silent reading. The reader then applies previously acquired listening comprehension skills.<sup>12</sup> Most bottom-up models theorists believe the written language is subservient to, or parasitic on, oral language; the only activity unique to reading “breaking the written code”.<sup>13</sup> It means that bottom-up models in reading, it is processing best describes learning to read.

3) Interactive models

It recognizes the interaction of bottom-up and top-down processes simultaneously throughout the reading process. Reading as an active process that depends on reader characteristic, the text, and the reading situation. Attempts to combine the valid insights of bottom-up and top-down models.

3. The Types of Reading

The are several types of reading performance are typically identified, namely:

1. Perceptive

In keeping with the set of categories specified for listening comprehension, similar specification are offered here, except with some differing terminology to capture the uniqueness of reading. Perceptive reading tasks involves attending to the components of larger stretches of discourse; letters, words, punctuation, and other symbols. Bottom-up processing is implied.

2. Selective

This category is largely an artifact of assessment formats. In order to ascertain one reading recognition of lexical, grammatical, or discourse features of language within a very short stretch of language, certain typical tasks are used; picture-cued task, matching, true/false, multi-choice, etc.

3. Extensive Reading

Williams as quoted by Solak & Altay states that extensive reading as the “relatively rapid reading of long texts”. According to Nuttal, extensive reading is essentially a private activity and the reader dwells in his/her private world of reading for his/her own interest. Nuttal has pointed out two reasons for extensive reading. The first reason is that extensive reading helps to improve the reading skills of the students. The second reason is that extensive reading not only serves a different atmosphere for the students but also provides them with enjoyment.

4. Intensive Reading

In intensive reading, readers extract specific information in shorter texts. Brown in Solak & Altay says that resembles intensive reading to a zoom lens strategy and states that “intensive reading calls attention to grammatical forms, discourse markers and other surface structure details for the purpose of understanding literal meaning, implementations, rhetorical relationships”.<sup>14</sup>

4. The Techniques of Reading

In the reading comprehension, there are several techniques that must be followed by students, namely:

1. Skimming Technique

A skimming technique is a technique which deals with the ability in finding general ideas or information from the text. Reading quickly to looking for the main idea of the text. It means that this technique used to get the specific information of the text.

2. Scanning Technique

A scanning technique is a technique which deals with the ability to find out the specific information in the text. Gellet as cited by suggest that the scanning technique is quickly going through a text to find a particular piece of information. Besides that, the scanning technique is done to locate specifically required information. Thus, scanning technique deals with the readers' ability in finding certain information they need in the text without reading the whole of text.<sup>15</sup>

Based on the technique above, the writer concludes that skimming is a technique of reading at high speed to look for important things or the main idea of a reading, while scanning is a technique of reading quickly to get an information without reading the others. Both techniques are very important to be used for reading.

5. The Concept of Reading Comprehension

Based on Oxford Advanced Learner's Dictionary the word of comprehension " is defined as;<sup>16</sup>

- (a) The power of understanding
- (b) An exercise aimed at improving or testing one understands of a language ( written or spoken). Meaning to say comprehension is an exercise which is aimed at improving or testing one understand of written or spoken language.

Comprehension is the understanding and interpretation of what is read. To be able to accurately understand written materials, children need to be able to 1) decode what they read; 2) make connections between what they read and what they already know; 3) think deeply about what they have read. One of big part of comprehension is having a sufficient vocabulary, or knowing the meaning of enough words.<sup>17</sup>

Comprehension involves prior knowledge , knowledge of text structure, and an active search for information.<sup>18</sup> The simplest definition of comprehension is understanding new information in light of what we already know.<sup>19</sup>

According to Webster's Dictionary, comprehension is "the capacity for understanding fully; the act or action of grasping with the intellect." Webster also tells us that is "to receive or take in the sense of (as letters or symbols) by scanning; to understand the meaning of written or printed matter; to learn from what one has seen or found in writing or printing."<sup>20</sup>

Based on these explanation above that the writer can make a conclusion that comprehension is a reading process which requires delicate information, understanding and interpretation from reading materials and students can understand it with their background knowledge and experience.

There are many experts that have different definition of reading comprehension. Douglas Brown states that reading comprehension is primarily a matter of developing appropriate, efficient comprehension strategies.<sup>21</sup> It means that reading comprehension purpose is to efficiency of reading. Furthermore, in reading activities, students should have good reading comprehension to get information from the reading text.

<sup>21</sup> H, douglas brown, Teaching By Principles An Interactive Approach To Language Pedagogy Second Edition ( san francisco state university),p.306

Janette States that a reading comprehension involves much more than reader's responses to text. Reading comprehension is a multi component, highly complex process that involves many interactions between readers and what they bring to the text ( previous knowledge, strategy use) as well as variables related to the text itself ( interest in text, understanding of text types).<sup>22</sup>

According to Harris and Sipay, reading comprehension is the result of the instruction among the readers perception of the graphic symbols that represent language, linguistic skills, cognitive skills, and knowledge of the world.<sup>23</sup>

Based on quotations above, the researcher can make a conclusion that reading comprehension is looking for the information suggested from the text or written language, the readers understand the total meaning of the reading text are selection.

6. The Strategy of Reading Comprehension

Many of the reading comprehension strategies that have been associated with the effect for students with learning disabilities are those that teach students strategies that prompt them, during and after reading.

These strategies ask student to:

1. Consider their background knowladge on the topic they are reading.
2. Summarizes key ideas, and

3. Self-question while they read.<sup>24</sup>

The strategy of reading comprehension instruction have the following components in common:

1. Assessment and evaluation of learning objectives, including orienting students to what they will be learning.
2. Daily reviews of material taught to assure mastery.
3. Teacher presentation of new material, including giving examples and demonstrating what students need to do.
4. Guided information, including questions to determine understanding .
5. Feedback and correction.
6. Independent practice and review.<sup>25</sup>

B. Concept of Descriptive Text

1. Definition Of Descriptive Text

According to Matthews descriptive text is a way to explain about events in or states of the world.<sup>26</sup> Schwegler adds that descriptive text is a text used to expose the details about places, people, qualities, emotions, moods, etc.<sup>27</sup>

Wyrick states a descriptive text is a text which a writer tries to picture what he is describing. Description is used to describe a particular thing/object, place, or person. The descriptive text is really different from the other kinds of text. Descriptive text is the text that describes something.<sup>28</sup>

Based on statement above can conclude the descriptive is a kind of genre text that contains describing about people, place or thing. Descriptive text has it's own specification that is different from other.

2. Generic Structure Of Descriptive Text

There several common used in descriptive text, namely:

a. Identification

Introduces to the subject of the description, contains the identification of matter/ a will be described.

b. Description

Contain the explanation, description of the thing, person to mention a few properties. In this part gives details of the characteristic features of the subject. It may describes parts, qualities, characteristic, size, physical, ability, habit, daily live etc.

c. Conclusion

Optional statement to sum up main ideas.

3. Specific Text of Descriptive Text

a. Using attribute and identifying process.

C. Concept of Extensive Reading

1. Definition of Extensive Reading

Extensive reading is an approach to language teaching in which learners read to lot of easy material in the new language. They choose they own reading materials and read it independently of the teacher. They read for general, overall meaning and they read for information and enjoyment. The are encouraged to stop reading if the material is not interesting or if it is too difficult.

Day and Bamford state that extensive reading purposely focuses on students' reading as much as possible; not only in classroom but also out of classroom. The variety of reading material on different topics is available; students themselves select the books according to their level and interest.<sup>30</sup>

According Susser and Rob, Extensive reading is also called “pleasure reading, free voluntary reading, and sustained silent reading”. The very important point of extensive reading is generally large quantities of materials with the aim of getting general understanding and obtaining pleasure from the text.<sup>31</sup>

According Waring and Takahashi, in extensive reading classroom, students read a “huge amount of very simple text. Thus, they can read smoothly, confidently and pleasurably”.<sup>32</sup> In addition, Nuttal describes extensive reading as “the easiest and most effective way to improve students skill and claimed that it is ”much easier to teach student to read better if they are learning in a favorable climate”.

Palmer who is the originator of the term defines that extensive reading means rapid reading. Those, who obtained some amount of foreign language understanding and without that process of mental translation, referring to the dictionary frequently.<sup>33</sup>

Based on these definitions of extensive reading, it can be concluded that extensive reading is a language teaching procedure where students have to read large quantities of materials for general understanding and the main goal of it is obtaining pleasure from the text.

2. Benefits of Extensive Reading

There are many benefits of extensive reading that have been reported by many language researchers. Nuttal states, extensive reading in effective way to improve vocabulary mastery. Students might have many chances to see word repeatedly by reading a large quantity of materials and become familiar with them. This help students study vocabulary or words that are recognized automatically.<sup>34</sup> Once students learn many words from extensive reading, they can improve the speed of reading with better comprehension skills, in this way, students will be more confident in reading English text.

Krashen states that extensive reading is the promotion of confidence and motivation, and it also develops a positive attitude to reading and studying English. Students who do not feel confident in reading English texts tend to give up reading a whole book.<sup>35</sup> This is because they are not interested in reading complicated reading materials. At this point, extensive reading is an effective way to motivate students to choose what, when, how, and where to read by themselves.

Furthermore, Nuttal addresses that “the best way to improve the knowledge of a foreign language is to go and live among its speakers. The next best way is to read extensive in it”. She also claims that extensive reading has a close relationship with reading speed, enjoyment, and comprehension by emphasizing “the vicious circle of the weak reader” and “the virtuous circle of the good reader”. The more students practice reading, the better and faster their English.

Day and Bamford identify several benefits of extensive reading. It can be presented as follows:

- a. Increasing reading ability. This is unsurprising since that is the stated goal of extensive reading.
- b. Increasing interest and motivation. Reading is one type of skills that is enjoyable. Students read books that they choose based on their level. This pleasure can impact the success of learning English.
- c. Improving vocabulary. Students need to meet words or vocabulary in a context many times to acquire it. Extensive reading seems to be good way to achieve this.
- d. Improving listening, speaking and spelling abilities. If listening and speaking are unsuccessful in the class, extensive reading can support these skills. It increases exposure to English vocabulary and discourse.
- e. Facilitating acquisition. Most current theories of second language acquisition recognize the role of language input and intake. Extensive reading provides these necessities.

Moreover, Elley and Mangubhai in Day and Bamford show the great effect of extensive reading on the second language learners that shows good development in language proficiency. Extensive reading can increase the other aspect of second language learning because there are two factors involved. Firstly, learning vocabulary is one of the keys to learning a new language.

3. Principles of Extensive Reading

Extensive reading is one of the teaching and learning approach, which has been emphasized to improve vocabulary mastery and to encourage a liking for reading. In extensive reading, students may choose reading materials which are interesting and read them in the class and out of class.

The following are ten principles of extensive reading proposed by Day and Bamford :

- a. The reading material is easy. Students read material that contain few or no unfamiliar items of vocabulary and grammar. There should be no more than one or two unknown vocabulary items per page for beginners and no more than four or five for intermediate not struggle with materials.
- b. A variety of material on a wide range of topics is available. There should be a variety in the library for students to choose what they really like. This contains graded reading for students at different levels.
- c. Students choose what they want to read. Self-selection puts students in a different role from that in a traditional classroom, where the teacher chooses the textbook or supplies reading material. This is what students really enjoy about extensive reading. They are also encouraged to stop reading anything that is not interesting or that they find too difficult;
- d. Students reads as much possible. The language learning benefits of extensive reading come from quantity of reading. For the benefits of extensive reading to take effect, a book per week is appropriate goal. This is a realistic target as books written for beginning language learners are very short.

- e. Reading speed is usually faster rather than slower. The reading material is easy to understand for students. They are discouraged from using dictionary as this interrupts reading and makes fluency impossible. Instead, they are encouraged to ignore or guess the meaning of a few unknown items from context.
- f. The purpose of reading is usually related to pleasure, information and general understanding. In spite of intensive reading which requires detailed understanding, extensive reading encourages reading for pleasure and information.
- g. Reading in individuals and silent. Students read their own speed. Sometimes silent reading period reserves from the class time when students read themselves selected books in the classroom. However, most of the reading is homework. They read out of the classroom, in their own time, when and where they choose.
- h. Reading is its own reward. Extensive reading is not usually followed by comprehension question. The goals of reading are readers' own experience and joy of reading. These are designed to reflect student's experience of reading rather than comprehension.
- i. The teacher orients and guides the students. Before starting an extensive reading, they have to be familiarized what it is, why they are going it, what benefits it will bring them and how are they going to proceed. The teacher keeps track of what and how much students read, he/she is interested in their reactions to what was read in order to guide them in getting the most out of their reading.

- j. The teacher is a role model of a reader. The teacher gives a model of what is to be a reader e.g. during the silent reading periods teacher should read as well. He/she should also be familiar with all the books students are reading in order to recommend reading to individual students and their share reading experience. If teacher and students talk about what was read, they create an informal reading community, experiencing together the value and pleasure to be found in written word.<sup>36</sup>

Organizing extensive reading consist of five sections. They are getting started, introducing reading material, motivating and supporting reading, monitoring reading, and evaluating reading. The activities include ways for engaging students in discussing their attitudes toward reading, introducing them to the books or other reading materials, helping the students find the most appropriate level of books for them to read, and for teacher to identify and organize the reading levels. This section also includes ideas for arranging, monitoring, and evaluating materials and students progress.

In addition, teachers can find suggestions for setting up a classroom library or identifying extensive reading materials by level, keeping records of students reading, and ways to introduce books to the learns. Since extensive reading does not involve heavy duty testing, the section on evaluating includes activities like one-minute reading, cloze test, one-sentence summary test, and speed answering.

CHAPTER III

RESEARCH METHOD

A. Setting of the Research

1. Location Setting

The researcher will do this research of SMAN 1 Raman Utara Central Lampung. It is located in Jl.Raya Raman Aji Kecamatan Raman Utara, Lampung Timur.

2. Subject of the study

Subject of the study is the students of tenth grader at SMAN 1 Raman Utara Central Lampung. The researcher chooses this class because the students have difficulties in reading.

B. Object of the study

The object of the research was to know whether using Extensive reading can improve the students' Reading Comprehension. The kind of this research is Classroom Action Research (CAR). In this research, the writer will collaborate with an English teacher, his name is Hairul Syahri, S.Pd.

C. Classroom Action Research

1. The definition of classroom action research

Action research is part of a broad movement that has been going on in education generally for some time. It is related to the ideas of 'reflective practice' the teacher as researcher. Action research taking a self-reflective, critical, and systematic approach to exploring your own teaching context.<sup>37</sup> Those involved in action research generally want to solve some kind of day-to-day immediate problem, such as how to decrease absenteeism or incidents of vandalism among the students body, motivate apathetic students, figures out ways to use technology to improve the teaching or increase funding.

2. Action plan

Action research is any systematic inquiry conducted by teachers, principals, school counselors, or other stakeholders in teaching learning environment that involves gathering information about the ways in which their particular schools operate, the teacher teach, and the students learn.<sup>38</sup>

As articulated earlier, the purpose of action research is to learn through action leading to personal or professional development. Kemmis and McTaggart maintain that action research involves a spiral of self-reflective spirals of:

<sup>38</sup> L. R. Gay, Educational Research Competencies for Analysis and Applications, Tenth Edition (Boston: Pearson, 2012), p.507

The action research Spiral

From the design above, here is the explanation about procedures that will be conducted by the writer in classroom action research.

There are two cycle to conduct in the Classroom action research, those are:

a. Cycle 1

1) Planning

The first step in every activity is planning. Planning is the first step of the teaching context and must be prepared by the researcher before doing action. Planning is a step to make arrangement for action project which explains about what, why, when, who and how the action will be done. The planning stage consist of the activities below:

- a) The researcher identifies the problems and found the problem solving.
- b) The researcher makes a lesson plan to teach reading.
- c) The researcher prepares the material, technique, and media of teaching reading.
- d) The researcher prepares observation and evaluation sheet.

2) Acting

The second step from classroom action research is acting. This step is the realization from the planning that has made by researcher. The planning is just imagination without action. The writer will do the steps in some action:

- a) The teacher practices the lesson plan.
- b) The teacher makes plan the benefits of using descriptive text as media.
- c) The teacher tells the strategies of learning reading.
- d) The teacher guides and helped the students in the learning process.

3) Observing

The third step is observing. In observing the teacher must be able to analyze the learning process, the students' activities, the teacher performance, the material and the result of simulation. The important things in teaching learning process are not by observer.

4) Reflecting

The last step is reflecting. Reflecting is the last step in this process. The researcher will be analyzed the observation result during teaching process, like weakness and strength from the action in this steps, the researcher uses data from evaluation to make improvement for second cycle. The researcher decides that the next cycle focuses on the weakness in preview cycle and can be better from this cycle.

b. Cycle II

1) Planning

Planning is the first steps in each activity. Without planning, the activity that the writer does will not focus. Here is step that the researcher can make in planning:

- a) The researcher will make a lesson plan based on the competence and the syllabus.
- b) The researcher prepares the lesson plan.
- c) The researcher prepares the material, source, and strategy of learning.
- d) The researcher prepares the format to observe.
- e) The researcher determines the instrument evaluation of the test (pre-test and post-test).

2) Acting

The second step in the classroom action research is acting. It is the implementing of the planning. The general steps will be done by the researcher as follows:

a) Pre Teaching Activities

- 1) Praying and greeting the students.
- 2) Checking the attendant list.
- 3) Choosing the appropriate with the material going to be taught.

b) While teaching process

- 1) The teacher applies the lesson plan.
- 2) The teacher explains about what is the descriptive and extensive reading in reading.
- 3) The teacher gives example of extensive reading by paper and give the idea for students.

c) Post teaching activities

- 1) The teacher asked and giving the idea to students then choose the students one by one to read it in front of class.
- 2) The teacher gives the score for students.

3) Observing

In this step, the researcher will be observed the process of teaching learning by using instrument of observation. The researcher conducting the activities in this step, such as: the students activities, fluency, vocabulary, phonics, and comprehension when reading in front of class.

4) Reflecting

The researcher will correct and analyze the result of the action. By reflecting, the researcher will know the weakness and strength of the action. In the step the researcher will compare the score distribution of pre test and post test. The researcher reviews and reflect on the student's attitude whether it is positive and negative. So, the researcher could be stopped this research until cycle I.

D. Data collecting method

1. Observation

In this research, the researcher will be observes something that related to activities of teacher that appropriate with the problem. By observing the researcher could observe directly the object that would be research without other mediator.

2. Test

According to Douglas Brown that test is method of measuring a person's ability or knowledge in a given domain.<sup>40</sup> The researcher used test, from pre-test and post-test.

<sup>40</sup> H. Douglas Brown, Teaching by Principles, Longman, San Fransisco State University, 2000, p. 384

a. Pre-test

The researcher gives the learners the pre-test. The test have the purpose to know how far comparison the students reading comprehension of narrative text before given treatment.

b. Post-test

The researcher is managing the post-test after giving treatment to know the end result of the research. the post-test is to know whether the treatment give improvement to the students reading comprehension at seven grade of Junior High School (SMP) Wiratama or not.

3. Documentation

Documentation is a method to get information from written source or document as books, magazine, regulation, notes or meeting and daily report. The researcher applied this method to get the data of the history of the school at the vocational high school.

4. Field Note

To collect the data more accurately in Classroom Action Research (CAR), the researcher uses field note to make easy when analyze the data. This is to know students activities during teaching process. It is done after finishing of teaching learning process.

E. Data Analysis Technique

Analysis of data means studying the tabulated material in order to determine inherent facts or meanings. A plan of analysis can and should be prepared in advance before the actual collection of material.<sup>41</sup>

Analyzing the data will be organized step by step of the pre-test and post-test.

This step is to know comparison between pre-test and post-test by conducting the test. Then the result will be matched by the minimum standard in this semester at least 68. If from cycle I there are some students not successful, so we would like conducted cycle II. The minimum cycle in CAR (Classroom Action Research) were two cycle, if from cycle II all of the students were successful, the cycle able to be stopped until cycle II only.

The data analysis technique in Classroom Action Research could be done by the qualitative and quantitative analysis. The analysis of learning result from taking the average score of pre-test and post-test in cycle I and cycle II. The formula from the average score of pre-test and post-test were formulated as follow<sup>42</sup> :

$$\bar{X} = \frac{\sum X}{N}$$

$N$

<sup>42</sup> Donald Ary, Introdaction to Research in Education, (USA: Wadsword), 2010, P. 108-109.

Notes :

$\bar{X}$  = Mean

$\Sigma$  = Sum Of

$X$  = Raw Score

$N$  = Number Of Cases

$\Sigma X$  = The Total Number Of Student Score

To get total score and increased the student progress from the implemented treatments, the researcher compare the average of pre-test and post-test.

F. Indicator of Success

The indicator of success is needed to know the successfulness of the process and learning result. In this research, students are called successful if 70% of students are active in the learning process and get a minimal score of 65, so this research could be done.

B. Description of The Research Result

This research used classroom action research (CAR). It has aim to improve the activity and the study result of students of SMAN 1 Raman Utara that was done in two cycles. The students result was gotten from test that was given to the students at the beginning and the ending of the research in every cycle. Meanwhile, the activity data was gotten from observation in the progress of learning process.

In this research, the writer used Extensive Reading Approach to improve student's reading skill of tenth grade of SMAN 1 Raman Utara because based on the pra-survey data they had low score in reading. It shows that many students who still have difficulties in reading skill because the students minimum mastery criteria (MMC) for English at SMAN 1 Raman Utara is 65.

1. Pre-Test

The first meeting was pre-test. Pre-test was done on Friday, November 17th, 2017. It was open by praying, greeting, checking attendance list, and introducing the researcher as a teacher for the students. At the day, the researcher has taken the students' pre-test score. Pre-test consist of planning, acting, observing and reflecting. The researcher conducted pre-test to know the student's reading skill before giving treatment and it used as the comparison score with post-test. The students read about descriptive text. The result of pre-test could be seen on the table below:

So, the result was unsatisfactory and the students could not achieve the target.

2. Cycle I

It has explained before that every cycle consist of four steps. They were planning, acting, observing, and reflecting. Each steps was explained clearly as below:

a. Planning

In the cycle I, the writer and the collaborator (Mr. Hairul Syahri, S.Pd) planned 3 meetings and distribution of materials.

The the highest score was 75 and the lowest was 55. The success students were those who got the minimum mastery criteria (MMC) at the tenth grade of SMAN 1 Raman Utara. That was 65, but the result of the students' test was better than the students' test before giving treatment. The improving could be seen as bellow:

2) The Success of The Process

The writer used the observation sheet at the cycle I. The students' activities in cycle I could be seen on the table below:

Table 13

The Result of the Students' Activity in Learning Process of Cycle I

No	Students' Activity	Frequency	Percentage
1	The students were fluency in reading text.	17	77.27%
2	Ask/answer the question from the teacher.	15	68.18%
3	The student were control their speed.	17	72.27%
4	Read and comprehend the text.	12	54.54%

The data above explained that the total of students who gave fluency in reading text 17(77.27%), 15 students (68.18%) ask/answers the question from the teacher and 17 student (72.27%) were control their speed, and 12 students (54.54%) who read and comprehend the text.

Based on the result of cycle I, it could be seen that most students got difficulties in reading skill. It was happened because the students have lack vocabulary, so they felt difficult to express ideas in English. In the end of cycle I the result of students' activities increase from the first meeting until next meeting. The result of cycle 1, it showed that there was an improved of the result at pre-test and post-test 1. The students' score also increase from the average in the pre-test 58.86 and the average of post-test 63.86 but it was not fulfil the completeness standard at least 80% students must get  $\geq 65$ . In the post-test of cycle I showed that only 12 students (54.5%) who got score more than 65.

For the information related to the indicator of success has not been achieved then the research continued on cycle II. The writer tried to get solution as follows:

- a) The writer should manage class well.
- b) The researcher asked students to study hard.
- c) Teacher should motivate students to be more active in class.

3. Cycle II

Cycle II were similar with cycle I, it was divided planning, acting, observing, and reflecting. There were explain more clearly as below:

a. Planning

In the planning at Cycle II, the writer and collaborator (Mr. Hairul Syahri, S.Pd) were going to make and discuss about the lesson plan. Before the writer and collaborator made a lesson plan, they wanted to identify the problem in the classroom. Based on the students' result in cycle I, the writer concluded the problem that the students' had difficulties to comprehend the content of text, So when they were asked to deliver it one by one they were confused and were not confident. From the problem, the writer gave the solution to the students. The researcher prepared the materials and motivate them in reading.

b. Acting

The implementation of cycle II was conducted in two meetings. In this meeting, the writer was being a teacher. Here the activities of cycle II, as follows:

1) The First Meeting

The meeting was done on Friday, November, 25th, 2017. In this meeting the writer was being a teacher. The teacher entered the classroom. The teacher said opening and asked the condition of students. The teacher was remembering the previous materials. The teacher continued the material. Then the asked the students about the material to checked their understanding. The students gave example by their own language.

After that, the teacher gave the task about descriptive text to students and they were asked to read a text one by one. The teacher closed the meeting.

c. Observing

1) The Success of The Product

In observation of teacher's action the researcher presented two meetings in cycle II. In the first meeting, the researcher gave treatment. The students were more active and interested in learning process. They could speak better than before. In the second meeting, the writer gave post-test to knew the improvement at the cycle II. The table below showed the result of students' at the post-test cycle II as follows:

The the highest score was 95 and the lowest was 60. The success students were those who got the minimum mastery criteria (MMC) at the tenth grade of SMAN 1 Raman Utara. That was 65, but the result of the students' test was better than the students' test before giving treatment and from post-test in cycle I.

2) The Success of The Process

Based on the result of the observation sheet in cycle II, the writer indicated that learning process in cycle II was successful. The result score of students' learning activities observation, as follow:

3) Reflecting

Based on the result of the observation above, it could be inferred that the result of using Extensive Reading was good. The writer checked the students' score before and after using Extensive Reading Approach. It was founded the significant increased in students' score in reading skill. The comparison between the students' score at pre-test, post-test I, and post-test II has taken and showed that there was the improvement from students before and after giving treatment.

The score of pre-test showed that the average of students' reading score was 53,86%. Then after they were given the treatment using Extensive Reading Approach, it was improved to be 63,86%. Until the next cycle the average was improve more to be 75%. Here was the graph that showed the improvement from pre-test, post-test 1 and post-test 2:

C. Interpretation

1. Improving The Students' Reading Skill In Descriptive Text Through Extensive Reading Approach At Tenth Grade of SMA N 1 Raman Utara East Lampung

There were differences between result of pre-test and post-test at the tenth grade of SMA N 1 Raman Utara. There was some improving could be seen on the table above:

test=53,86, in post-test I=63,86. It improves 6,81 point. The average score in post-test II=75. It improved 12,0 point. It means that more than 70% students passed. So, the research stopped in cycle II. The following chart was to described the analysis data result:

The Improvement From Pre-Test, Post-Test 1 And Post-Test 2

Based on the graph above, it could be concluded that the using of Extensive Reading could improve the students' reading skill. It was shown from the graph, there were significant increasing of students' average score from the pre-test, post-test 1, and post-test 2. The students were successfully reached out the minimum mastery criteria (MMC) of the tenth grade, 65. The average of students' score was increased from 53,86 to 63.86 and finally became 75. It could be inferred that the result of students score in pre-test to post-test 1 up to post-test 2 has reached out the criteria of the indicator of success with percentage until 75% in the last cycle.

The data of interpretation the result of students' learning activities in cycle I and cycle II was gotten from the whole students' learning activities on observation sheet. The table increasing of it as follow:

Table 19

The Table of Students' Activities in Cycle I and Cycle II

Then there were only 17 students (72.27%) who made new phrase or sentence has increased up to 20 students (90.90%). The last to read and comprehend the text. there were 12 students (54,54%) up to 19 students (86.36%).

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

Considering from all data gathered in the Classroom Action Research, the researcher got some conclusions of the research and some suggestions that support the research result.

A. Conclusion

Based on the result of the analysis of chapter IV, it can be seen that in the cycle I the average score of pre-test cycle I was 53.86 and the average of post-test in cycle I was 63.86. In the post-test in cycle II the average score was 75. There are some progresses after being given treatment by using Extensive Reading Approach. It means that the use of the Extensive Reading Approach can improve the students' reading skill. By using Extensive Reading in teaching reading, especially reading skill, it can improve the students' reading skill at the tenth graders of SMAN 1 Raman Utara. The students are more enjoyed because Extensive Reading can help them to read. So, Extensive Reading Approach can improve students' reading skill.

B. Suggestion

The researcher proposes some suggestions as follows:

1. The students should be more active and interested in learning process, especially in English program. Because, English is very important in globalization.

The Eiffel Tower

The Eiffel Tower is an iron lattice tower located on the Champ de Mars in Paris. Built in 1889, it has become both a global icon of France and one of the most recognizable structures in the world. The tower is the tallest building in Paris and the most-visited paid monument in the world; millions of people ascend it every year. Named for its designer, engineer Gustave Eiffel, the tower was built as the entrance arch to the 1889 World's Fair.

The tower stands 324 metres (1,063 ft) tall, about the same height as an 81-story building. Upon its completion, it surpassed the Washington Monument to assume the title of tallest man-made structure in the world, a title it held for 41 years, until the Chrysler Building in New York City was built in 1930; however, due to the addition in 1957 of the antenna, the tower is now taller than the Chrysler Building. Not including broadcast antennas, it is the second-tallest structure in France after the 2004 Millau Viaduct.

The tower has three levels for visitors. Tickets can be purchased to ascend, by stairs or lift, to the first and second levels. The walk to the first level is over 300 steps, as is the walk from the first to the second level.

The third and highest level is accessible only by elevator. Both the first and second levels feature restaurants.

The tower has become the most prominent symbol of both Paris and France, often in the establishing shot of films set in the city.

F. Metode Pembelajaran/Strategi

Extensive Reading Approach

Langkah-langkah:

- Pelajaran dimulai dengan mengenalkan topik. Pada point ini guru menentukan topik untuk diberikan kepada siswa.
- Guru menjelaskan topik pembelajaran, misalnya: pengertian teks deskriptif, struktur yang ada dalam teks deskriptif, dan contoh teks deskriptif teks.
- Guru membimbing siswa untuk mengorganisasikan teks, dan menulis gagasan/ide yang terdapat dalam teks.
- Guru membimbing siswa untuk memahami isi dari teks tersebut berdasarkan gagasan/ide yang telah ditemukan.
- Guru membimbing siswa untuk mengerjakan soal-soal latihan berdasarkan teks yang telah dibaca dan dipahami pada langkah sebelumnya.
- Kemudian guru mengevaluasi hasil jawaban para siswa berkaitan dengan teks deskriptif yang telah dipelajari.

F. Penilaian

1. Teknik Penilaian

- Sikap (melalui rubric pengamatan sikap selama pembelajaran)
- Pengetahuan: tes tertulis

2. Bentuk instrumen

- Tes tertulis dalam bentuk soal. Penilaiannya dilakukan dengan cara menghitung jumlah jawaban benar dari jumlah soal yang diberikan.
- Instrumen Unjuk kerja, yaitu berupa rubrik penilaian. Berikut adalah rubrik-rubrik penilaian yang dapat digunakan oleh guru untuk melakukan penilaian unjuk kerja siswa, berikut teknik perhitungan skornya.
- Penilaian Observasi

My best friend

I have a special friend. She is my classmate and sits besides me. Her name is Salsha. Salsha is a quite girl and very simple on the look. However, I really adore her. She is not only kind but also tough.

Salsha comes from a very simple family. Her father is a pedicab driver and her mother has passed away. She has a younger brother. His name is Yoga. In order to help their father, Salsha and her brother work part-time to earn some money. Salsha sells food during our class break, while her brother sells newspapers and magazines after school.

One thing that I always admire about her is that she can manage her time well, and she always looks cheerful.

Kediri is a name of a town. It is situated in a valley between the Kelud and Wilis mountains and inhabited by about 1.3 million people. In the center of the town there is a large hill which is called the Dathok mountain. Because of the topography of the region, Kediri is called a chili town by the locals. There is a big river called Brantas cutting off the center of the town.

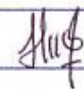

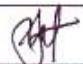

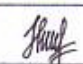

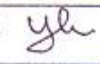

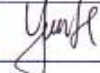

Besides temples, Kediri is also famous for its products like cigarettes and a special kind of tofu or bean curd. This highly nutritious food is a delicacy of Kediri and has a distinctive taste. The cigarette factory dominates the town's economy and employs the majority of the women labor force. Kediri and the cigarette factory are inseparable and it is considered the biggest cigarette factory in Indonesia. Most of the local people work in this factory. Those who do not work here are farmers or traders.
