CHAPTER I

INTRODUCTION

A. Background of The Study

English is an international language that plays many important roles in many aspects of life. In Indonesia, English has included into curriculum as one of subject in teaching and learning process in every level of schools. Meanwhile, there are four basic skills in learning English that must be mastered by language learners namely, listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Consequently, the students should learn and master for all education levels will increase the quality of national education in Indonesia.

Therefore, English needs to be taught both in formal and informal institutions. Teaching English is a very valuable effort that aims not only to transfer knowledge of English but also to familiarize language learners to use English in their daily lives both in writing and orally. Teaching English includes four language skills which include listening, speaking, reading and writing.

The ability to read in English is influenced by several aspects that are categorized in the aspects of linguistics and non linguistics. The linguistics aspects of reading skills support includes English vocabulary mastery, mastery of grammar, skills in detecting the main idea, and supporting details, and the ability to understand the context of the readings. A high mastery of the vocabulary significantly supporting the ease of reading to understand text

The ability to detect the main idea of the reader can grasp the main idea and supporting ideas in understanding the content of the text properly and quickly. It has a good ability in understanding the context of reading the reader can easily understand the entire content of the message reading taking into account the context of the proper readings.

The ability to read is also influenced by aspects of non linguistics. Non linguistics aspects includes use of media in reading, teaching strategy, support environmental suitability, and psychological factors. Appropriate media usage in the process of learning to read will increase the motivation of students to improve their reading skills by reading media elections because it must be done carefully matched with the ultimate goal of the process of reading or write, the appropriate teaching strategy will support the process of learning to read is becoming very effective strategy. Therefore, teaching reading should be attempted in order to support the achievement of the best results in the quality of student reading, support the environment also contribute significantly to the ability of reading.

However, reading is not an easy to understand in a short time. There are various problems got by students in the process of reading. Most readers have a limited English vocabulary so that they are difficult understand the content of the readings. In addition, the students also have insufficient English grammar. The process of understanding the main idea and supporting ideasis hard to do by the students. In addition, reading problems are also caused by factors such as insufficient non linguistics motivation reading habits, low reading and low support environment.

In line with the problem of reading, the researcher had done pre-survey to know the students reading problem at MAN 1 Lampung Timur. Pre-survey was conducted on July 31th, 2019 while the pre-survey results are illustrated in the following table:

No.	Grade	Categorize	Frequency	Percentage
1	≥ 75	Complete	5	27%
2	< 75	Incomplete	25	73%
Total			30	100%

Based on the table of pre-survey result above, it is investigated that 73% of the students have insufficient reading comprehension. It is because there are 25 of 30 students who are not able to complete MMC grade. Meanwhile, the percentage of students that are able to read well is 27%. It is because there are just 5 of 30 students who are able to complete MMC grade. It means that most of the students have low reading comprehension . They feel difficult in reading comprehension.

Base on the pre-survey results, it is also known that the reading comprehension of the tenth grade at MAN 1 Lampung Timur that is the students have limitations in mastering vocabulary and English grammar. In addition, they also have difficulty in solving and determining the main ideas and supporting ideas, therefore students who have difficulty understanding important information from a reading.

One of media in reading is short story. The use of short story in teaching reading make students interest in learning process. Short story is a form of fictional narrative prose. Short story tends to be solid and direct to their goals compared to the works of other fictions that are longer.such as novels. Successful short stories rely on literary techniques such as characters, plots, themes, languages and insights more broadly than longer fiction. Short stories take much less time to write than novels, so the researchers can get something completed quickly and have it on its way to the publisher. They are short, neat and compact, so it's possible to get many written within one year and they can be a good way to gain recognition in the field of publishing.

Based on the above research, there are similarities and differences between previous research and research that was conducted by the researcher. The similarity between the previous research and the research are conducted by short story media. Furthermore, the difference between previous research is the type of research that uses qualitative and quantitative research while the research that was conducted by the author is a classroom action research.

CHAPTER II

REVIEW OF THE RELATED THEORIES

A. The Concept of Reading Comprehension Ability

1. The Definition of Reading

Reading helps students become better writers. Through reading students have incidental contact with the rules of grammar. Students develop a sense for the structure of the language and grammar and increase their vocabulary.⁴ It means that reading is a significant thing that students should be mastered in learning English. Reading is an active process which consists of recognition and comprehension skill. Reading is an important activity in life with which one can update his/her knowledge. Reading comprehension is an important tool for academic success.⁵

According to Douglas Brown, reading is a skill that teachers simply expects learners that acquire. Basic, beginning-levels textbooks in foreign language presuppose a student's if only because it's a book that is medium.⁶ It is in the process learning to get information in beginning level of bottom.

Based on some definition above, the researcher can be concluded that reading is basic of language and the important thing for student to be mastered, especially in learning English. Reading is also a process that is very useful in getting information or important message from the in reading.

⁶H. Douglas Brown, Language Assessment Principles and Classroom Practice, (San Fransisco, 2004), p.185

The readers also must understand the message and information what they have read.

2. Definition of Comprehension

The word “understanding” is a synonym of “comprehension”. Comprehension or the ability to understanding so that reading comprehension means, “understanding what you read”.

According to RAND Reading Study Group, comprehension is the process of eliciting and making meaning through interaction and involvement with written language.⁷ Thus, comprehension includes the ability to understand the meaning and meaning of the material being studied.

Moreover, Elizabeth states that comprehension is the process of deriving meaning from connected text. It involves word knowledge (vocabulary) as well as thinking and reasoning.⁸ Students are said to understand something if they can provide an explanation or give a more detailed description of it by using their own language.

Furthermore, Laura explains that comprehension is a complex process that has been understood and explained in a number of ways.⁹ Comprehension is also the next level of cognitive domain in the form of to understand the content of the lessons learned without the need to consider or relate them to other content.

⁹ Laura S. Pardo, "What Every Teacher Needs to Know About Comprehension", The Reading Teacher 58, no. 3 (2004): 272.

In conclusion, comprehension is the ability of a person to understand something by giving an explanation using their own language.

3. The Definition of Ability

Ability is a sign of some other mental state, the act of subsuming the perceived object under a pre-existing concept (e.g. the concept of a handle).¹⁰ It means that ability is a state of mental condition to accept an input and respond in the form of output.

Moreover, according to Waltraud Brennenstuhl, ability is condition for the quality of the performance, for the extent to which something is successfully done and for the difficulty of the task performed.¹¹ It means that ability shows the quality of certain condition of something that is successfully done in overcoming the difficulties.

In addition, ability is a word that seems to be accepted as a sort of conceptual primitive, and in fact it is intimately related to such commonly used words as able and the simple modal auxiliary can.¹² It means that ability shows the concepts that can be shown with the word able.

Based on some definition above, it is concluded that ability is a mental state to receive an input successfully as indicated by the output that is able to overcome difficulties.

4. Definition of Reading Comprehension

Reading can not be separated from comprehension because the purpose or the result of reading activity is to comprehend what has been read. Reading without understanding what has been read is useless. In reading comprehension as one of integrated skill attracts many experts to highlight their opinion about the definition of reading comprehension.

Comprehension is influenced by a range of internal factors, including perceptions, beliefs, motivation, and problem-solving strategies.¹³ In other word comprehension is a complex process regulated by cognitive, emotional, perceptual, and social experiences.¹⁴

Based on the definition above, Reading Comprehension is an activity by human to read the text with constructing meaning through interaction and involvement to get the information when they read a text courageously.

5. Strategies for Reading Comprehension

There are some strategies in reading comprehension that can be used to help the readers comprehending the text. Those strategies can be explained as follows:

a. Skimming

Skimming is quickly running one's eyes across a whole text (such as an essay, article or chapter) for its gist. Skimming give readers the advantage of being able to predict the purpose of passage, the main topic,

¹³ Linda J Dorn and Carla Soffos, “Teaching Deep Comprehension: A Reading Workshop Approach”, (Stenhouse Publisher; 2005), p.6

or message and possibly some of the developing or supporting ideas.

This gives them a head start as they embark on more focused reading.¹⁵

b. Scanning

Scanning is quickly searching for some particular piece or pieces of information in a text. Scanning exercises may ask student to look for names or dates, to find a definition of a key concept or to list a certain number of supporting details. The purpose of scanning is to extract specific information without reading through the whole text. For academic english scanning is absolutly essential. In vocational or general english, scanning is important in dealing with genres like schdules, manuals, forms,etc.

c. Analyzing vocabulary

One way for learners to make guessing pay off when they don't immedietely recognize a word is to analyze it in terms of what they know about it. Several teachniques are useful here:

- 1). Looking for prefixes (co-,inter-,etc) that may give clues.
- 2). Looking for suffixes (-tion,-ally,etc) that may indicate what part of speech it is.
- 3). Looking for roots that are familliar (e.g., intervening may be a word a student doesn't know, but recognizing that root ven comes from latin “to come” would yield the meaning “ to come in between”).
- 4). Looking for grammatical contexts that may signal information.

¹⁵ H. Douglas Brown, Teaching by principles: an interactive approach to language pedagogy, (New York:Longman, 2004),P 308.

5). Looking at the simantic context (topic) for clues.

6. Models of Reading Comprehension

In the reading comprehension, there are three important models which should be paid more attention such as:

a. The bottom-up model

Bottom-up model where the reader begins with the printed word, recognizes graphic stimuli, decoded them to sound, recognizes word and decodes meaning.

b. Top-down Model

Top-down model emphasizes the importance of these schemata, and the reader's contribution, over the income text. Top-down model intends the students to build the meaning through their previous knowledge and assumption.

c. Interactive Model

Interactive model is an adequaite characterisation of the reading process and more adequaite model. It means that interactive model is combination among bottom up and top-down models and emphasizes the interaction between a reader and the text.¹⁶

¹⁶J. Charles Alderson, Assessing reading (New York ; Cambridge University Press, 2000), p.16-18.

7. Assessment of Reading Comprehension

Cheryl A Jones state that Assessment as part of classroom activities is a fundamental process required to promote learning and ultimately achievement.¹⁷

Regarding the definition of assessment, Iasonas and James define it as follows:

“Assessment is the process of collecting and organising information from purposeful activities (e.g., tests on performance or learning) with a view to drawing inferences about teaching and learning, as well as about persons, often making comparisons against established criteria.”¹⁸

In other words, assessment is the process of knowing about how students are progressing in their learning to make the right decision in designing and planning classroom instruction.¹⁹

Based on the definition above, it is concluded that assessment of reading is the process of gathering and processing information to determine students' ability to understand texts.

According to Brown there are some criteria commonly used in indicating students' reading comprehension, those are:²⁰

- a. Main idea (topic)
- b. Expressions/ idiom/ phrases in context
- c. Inference (implied detail)

- d. Grammatical features
- e. Detail (scanning for a specifically stated detail)
- f. Excluding facts not written (unstated details)
- g. Supporting ideas
- h. Vocabulary in context

Based on the indicator above, the preparation process of reading comprehension test must consider completeness of the indicators of reading comprehension.

B. The Concept of Short Story

1. The Nature of Short Story

According to Rust Hills, short story is a prose narrative glibly described as "shorter than a novel".²¹ In other words, a short story is different from a sketch because "a short story tells of something that happened to somebody".²² It means that the story is very short to be read.

Tim Killick explains that short stories are often defined not only in terms of magnitude, but also meritocratically, using stylistic, thematic and qualitative factors. From the point of view of many critics, the short story is a genre that differs in certain ways from the more diffuse form of short fiction.²³ According to Joyce Armstrong Carroll And Edward E. Wilson, ²¹Rust Hills, "Writing in General and the Short Story in Particular",(Library of Congress Cataloging in Publication Data, Copyright 1977), p.1.

²²Ibid, 2.

²³ TIM Killick, "British Short Fiction in the Early Nineteenth Century",(Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data, 2008), p.9.

the short story is finite, with "tight plotting, close character development, and concise, effective expression"²⁴

Based on the statement above the researcher concludes that short story can be defined as fiction work o prose that has character, plot, and setting to be read in a short time or one setting. Short story is one of an alternative media to improve English learning process and it can make an English learning process more effective and efficient.

2. The Element of Short Story

There are five element of short story, as follow:

a. Title

Short story titles can serve one or several purposes, the most common of which are as follows:

- 1). For the name of the main character
- 2). To provide a scene, or setting, a story.
- 3). To suggest a major incident.
- 4). To mention several objects that play an important role in the story.
- 5). To give the tone of the story.
- 6). To arouse curiosity.

b. Beginning

The opening paragraphs of a story can have a variety of purposes, one of which is the most common:

²⁴ Joyce Armstrong Carroll And Edward E. Wilson, “Acts of Teaching How to Teach Writing”,(Library of Congress Cataloging-in-Publication Data, Copyright 1993), p.112.

- 1) To begin the action of the story, either by incident or by conversation.
- 2) To introduce characters, with descriptions or comments.
- 3) To state or suggest a central idea of the story.
- 4) To tell how the story was written or published.

c. Plot

The plot of the story can be described as "what the character likes." Plots can be classified based on their probabilities in three groups: probable, impossible, or improbable. In realistic fiction, the plot is always possible; in romantic fiction may not be possible or impossible.

d. Character

The character of short story should answer the following questions:

- 1) Are there many or little characters?
- 2) Is the character alive?

There are two ways to show character traits. The first is with author comments, such as when Irving said, "Rip is a simple, kind person," etc. The second is to let characters show their characteristics through their words and actions. This is called the dramatic method.

e. Settings

To confirm the setting of the short story there are some question used to check the completeness of setting as follows:

- 1) Is the time and place of the story clearly stated, or do you deduce it from ordinary cues?
- 2) Is surrounding made clear? Does the author provide a lot of details on the appearance of village roads, interior houses, etc.?
- 3) Are there many descriptions about nature?
- 4) In describing people, do the authors provide their features? Their figure? Their dress?

In some stories, characters or backgrounds are deliberately blurred, as in an image an artist can give us an outline that weakens a dark background, to give a certain atmosphere or move to the picture.²⁵

3. Language of Short Story

In the short story, language has a multitude of other roles, beyond simple achieving the narration. For instance, in any description of the setting — and the setting, whether it be lonely room or crowded city, will be chosen carefully for its connections with the theme as well as the action — the language (enhanced by symbol and imagery) will have the theme implicit in it. And language will also create style, will imply the author's tone, will be used for atmosphere or mood, may be a foreshadowing device of the plot, will certainly depend on the point of view from which the story is told (for language and style and tone are entirely interdependent with the ²⁵Benjamin A Heydrick, “Types Of The Short Story”, (New York, copyright 2008), p.14-19.

angle of narration, the point of view chosen), and may contribute to the characterization of the point-of-view figure.²⁶

4. Characteristics of Successful Short Story

A successful short story will show a more harmonious relationship between parts to the whole, and parts to parts, than is usually found in a novel. Everything must work with the others. Everything enhances everything else, is interrelated with everything else, cannot be separated from everything else - and all this is done perfectly.²⁷

5. The function of short story

A short story can show how someone's character. Or a story can show extraordinary circumstances where the character breaks or jolts out of the story line. In rare cases, a story can show how a character loses his last chance to leave. But in any case, action in fiction is not static action. This is made with constant movements such as figures circling around the urn but not going anywhere. Such behavior patterns are explained at the beginning of the story to create characterization. Or they are suggested at the end of the story as a result of action, this shows what character is happening in the story.²⁸

6. Procedure of Teaching Reading by Using Short Story

Generally, the steps for presenting the short story are :

1. The researcher explains the characteristic of short story that usually begins with the words like ‘ Once upon a time..’ or “One day..”.

²⁶Rust Hills, “Writing in General. , p.4.

²⁷Rust Hills, “Writing in General. , p. 4.

2. The researcher Introduces the characters of the story by mentioning the names of characters.
3. The researcher and the students discussion the setting of short story that include the place and time.
4. The researcher pronounces the name of characters and the key words then the students follow him/her.
5. The researcher and students discussion the main event of short story part by part by asking the question in the student.
6. The researcher gives the conclusion of short story.
7. The teacher closes the learning process by asking the students about the content of story or asking for the story according to their opinion.²⁹

7. Benefits of Short Story

In writing, the short-short story rather than the more common short story comes closer to the classic étude, and for this reason is better suited to some of the initial needs of the creative writing student. There are several benefits of short story³⁰, as follow:

- a. Short story enrich learners' vocabulary.
- b. Short story are motivating and can help develop positive attitudes towards the foreign language.
- c. Short story can develop the imagination of students.
- d. Short story can also improve students' speaking skill.

- e. Short story helps students to write more creatively.³¹

C. Action Hypothesis

The action hypothesis of this Classroom Action Research is stated as follows:

“The use of short story can improve reading comprehension ability and learning activity of the tenth grade at MAN 1 Lampung Timur in The Academic Year of 2019/2020”.

CHAPTER III

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

A. Variables and Definition of Operational Variables

1. Variables of Research

This research consists of two variables; they are independent and dependent variables. The independent variable in this research is short story that was implemented to improve the students' reading comprehension ability in easy way. This media is useful to make the students to understand the main idea of each paragraph.

The dependent variable of this research is reading as one of the four of language skills that has to be mastered by the students in order to be able to get information, or idea from the text what the researcher mean.

2. Definition of Operational Variables

An operational definition is the specification of how a researchers defines and measures, the variable in their study. A sometimes published studies have sections titled "Definition of Terms." Alternatively, you might examine definitions in research summaries such as handbooks or encyclopedias.³² Based on statement, the definition operational of the variabel in this research are:

³² John W. Creswell, Educational Research: Planning, Conducting, and evaluating Quantitative and Qualitative Research (Boston: Parso, 2012), p.151

a. Dependent Variable

Dependent variable is variable that depends on the independent variable. It is the outcomes or results of influence of the independent variable. Dependent variable of this research is reading comprehension that includes of student content, main idea, and supporting idea. Then the researcher collected the data by using multiple choice test, the test is 10 item.

The indicators of this variable are:³³

- 1) The students are able to identify main idea of the text and answering the question well.
- 2) The students are able to identify the communicative purpose of the text.
- 3) The students are able to comprehend in forming words and building English sentences.

b. Independent Variable

The independent variable are variable (probably) cause, influence or effect outcome. They are also called treatment, independent variable of this research is short story media. There are some of indicators that indicate the students be able to achieve the objectives of this strategy as follows:

- 1) The students are able to read and comprehend the story.
- 2) The students can mention the characters of the story.
- 3) The students are able to answer the question based on the story.

³³ Joan F. Groeber, Designing And Using Rubric For Reading and Language Arts, (India:Corwin press, 2007), P30

B. Setting of The Research

Classroom action research was conducted at MAN 1 Lampung Timur. The setting of the research in 38b Banjar Rejo, Kec. Batanghari, Kab. Lampung Timur.

C. Subject of the Research

The subject of this research is the students of the tenth grade of MAN 1 Lampung Timur. The data can be seen below:

No	Grade	Sex		Total
		Male	Female
1	X	9	21	30

Based on the table above, there are 9 male students and there are 21 female students at the tenth grade. The total of the subject is 30 students.

D. Action Plan

1. Classroom action research

According to Jean McNiff and Jack Whitehead, action research is a form of enquiry that enables practitioners everywhere to investigate and evaluate their work.³⁴

In addition, Donald Ary et, al, asserts that action research is based on the premise that local conditions vary widely and that the solutions to many problems cannot be found in generalized truths that take no account of local conditions.³⁵ It means that researcher focus on the use of action research in education.

Meanwhile, Patrick defines action research is referred to variously as a term, process, enquiry, approach, flexible spiral process and as cyclic.³⁶ It means that action research is reflection to use to review the previous action and plan the next one.

From several theories, it can be inferred that the classroom action research is a dynamic process that has our aspects, action, observing, and reflecting in every cycles, it is do the class to improve the quality of learning practice.

Classroom action research (CAR) has various models but in this research the researcher uses ZinaO'leary research design. According to ZinaO'leary action research is a cyclical process that takes shape as knowledge emerges.³⁷ This phase can be seen by following figured:

³⁵Donald Ary, Introduction to Research in Education 8th Edition, (Wadsworth: Cengage Learning, 2010, 2006), 512.

³⁶Patrick J. M. Costello, Action Research, (British: Library Cataloguing-in-Publication Data, 2003), 5.

³⁷Zina O'leary, Doing The Essential Guide To Doing Research, (London: SAGE Publications, 2004), 140.

This figure describes the sequence of the research which is proceeding by planning, following by action, observation, and reflection that implement in each cycle in spiral system. The assumption is if the determine out came in the first cycle cannot be achieve or there may be found new problem, so it will probably be continue and reside in the next cycle that have same phase on the first cycle.

In this case, the researcher was conducted classroom action research of the tenth grade at MAN 1 Lampung Timur.

1. The steps in the research

There are four steps in cycle. They are planning, action, observation, and reflection, if the first has failed and the cycle must be review again in the second cycle and so on that can be illustrated by like this procedures as follows:

a. Cycle 1

1) Planning

In this first phase, after analyzing the finding of the preliminary study such as identifying and diagnosing student's problem in reading that occur in the classroom and concluding the finding in preliminary study. Then the researcher was prepares some plans to conduct the classroom. They are the following:

- a) The researcher prepares the lesson plan including learning procedure, media, and relevant material to be applied in acting phase.
- b) The researcher prepares learning resource for students. The researcher determines the strategy to be applied in acting phase. In this case, the researcher uses random textstrategy to improve reading comprehension.
- c) The researcher prepares observation format and also evaluating format to evaluate the student's activity after learning process.
- d) The researcher designs the criteria of success.

2) Action

In the second phase, the researcher collaborates to implement the action that has been arranged in planning phase. These activities are implemented on the following step:

- a) Pre teaching activity
 - 1) The researcher starts the lesson by greeting to the students.
 - 2) The researcher and students pray together.
 - 3) The researcher checks students' attendance.
 - 4) The researcher informs to the students about the competence, the indicator and the objectives that should be achieve.
- b) While teaching activity
 - 1). The resercher explains the characteristic of short story that usually begins with the words like ‘ Once upon a time..’ or “One day..”.
 - 2). The resercher Introduces the characters of the story by mentioning the names of characters.
 - 3). The resercher and the students discussion the setting of short story that include the place and time.
 - 4). The resercher pronounces the name of characters and the key words then the students follow him/her.

5). The researcher and students discuss the main event of short story part by part by asking the question in the student.

6). The researcher gives the conclusion of short story.

7). The researcher closes the learning process by asking the students about the content of story or asking for the story according to their opinion.

c) Post teaching activity

(1) The researcher gives positive feedback to the students.

(2) The researcher and the students conclude the learning topic that has been discussed.

(3) The researcher greets the students at the end of the meeting.

(4) After giving treatment in cycle 1, the researcher gives the post-test. The instrument which is given to the students has a different type from the instrument which is given in the pre-test.

3) Observation

In the third phase, the researcher investigates the students' activity, their participations, class situation during learning process, and researcher performance by using a structured observation form and makes notes of the overall activities. Furthermore, the researcher also collects the data from the post test and result of student's activity.

The researcher observes the overall activities to find out the effectiveness of learning process which have been occurs and the result is concluding and discussing in reflecting phase.

4) Reflection

In the fourth phase, the researcher tries to see and think again something that researcher has done. It also to know whether there is influence to the students' learning process. By reflecting, the researcher can get information the strength and the weakness from the action that the researcher has been done. If the researcher still find the problems, the researcher will conduct the next cycle and use the collected data in cycle one as the reference by repairing all the problems or weaknesses in previous cycle.

a. Cycle 2

1) Re-Planning

In the first phase, when the researcher finds the problem in the first cycle, the researcher repairs the problem in the next cycle. It is explained as follow:

- a) The researcher analyses the reflection result to obtain the solving problem.
- b) The researcher revises and prepare the lesson plan based on the problem appear in the previous cycle including learning procedure, media, and relevant material to be apply in acting phase.

c) The researcher rearranges observation format and also reform the evaluation format to improve the plan indicators that have not been achieved yet in the previous cycle.

2) Action

In the second phase of cycle two, the researcher applies the same steps in previous cycle, but the researcher applies the revise plan such as lesson plan, material, and instrument for evaluation. The activities they are:

a) Pre teaching activity

- (1) The researcher starts the lesson by greeting to the students.
- (2) The researcher and students prays together.
- (3) The researcher checks student's attendance.
- (4) The researcher informs to the students about the competence, the indicators and objectives that will be achieve.

b) While teaching activity

- 1). The resercher explains the characteristic of short story that usually begins with the words like ' Once upon a time..' or "One day..".
- 2). The resercher Introduces the characters of the story by mentioning the names of characters.

- 3). The researcher and the students discuss the setting of short story that include the place and time.
 - 4). The researcher pronounces the name of characters and the key words then the students follow him/her.
 - 5). The researcher and students discuss the main event of short story part by part by asking the question in the student.
 - 6). The researcher gives the conclusion of short story.
 - 7). The researcher closes the learning process by asking the students about the content of story or asking for the story according to their opinion.
- 1) Post teaching activity
 - (1) The researcher gives positive feedback or reinforcement to the students.
 - (2) The researcher and students conclude the learning topic that have been discussed.
 - (3) The researcher greets the students in the end of the meeting.
 - 3) Observation

In the third phase, the researcher investigate the students' activity, their participations, class situation during learning process, and researcher performance by using structure observation form and made note the overall activities. Furthermore, the researcher also collects the data from the post test and the result of students' activity.

4) Reflection

In the fourth phase, the researcher discusses and analyses about the data that have been collected from all the activities from the acting phase until observing phase to find out whether the implementation of card sort run successful or unsuccessful in the second cycle and also compare the students' improvement from cycle one until cycle to find out the students' achievement. If there is find good improvement based on the criteria of success that have determine before, the researcher did not continue the action in next cycle.

E. Data Collection Techniques

The data was collected by using method as follows:

1. Test

Test of this research consist of pre-test that was conducted before the treatment and post-tests that was done at the end of each cycle. The post test was done after the treatments. After the treatment, the student had a post-test. The form and the procedure of the post text are the same as pre-test. In this case, the researcher conducted the test in order to know the reading skill of the tenth grade of Man 1 Lampug Timur. The test includes of pre-test and post-test. Both of the tests are in form of asking the students' to read and arrange the text.

2. Observation

Observations are systematically recorded rather than stored only in personal memory, and are carefully interpret and analyses, again employing systematic and plan procedures.³⁹It means that observation is a data collection strategy in which the activities of subjects are visually examine. In this research the researcher observed the learning process of the tenth graders of MAN 1 Lampung Timur.

3. Documentation

Documentation may refer to particular individuals, as with school records and reports about pupils, or may concern more ‘macro’ issues, as with one of her Majesty’s Inspectorate reports on the physical state of schools,it can have a number of features.⁴⁰It means that documentation is note of information in the form of documentation. The resarcher uses this method to get data about the tenth grade of MAN 1 Lampung Timur.

4. Field Note

Field note is observation instrument used in CAR to provide a record of what is going on during an observation which includes descriptions of places, people, objects, acts, activities, events, purposes, times and feelings.

F. Data Collection Instrument

1. Reading Test

To identify the students' reading ability of the tenth grade of MAN 1 Lampung Timur, the researcher applied the reading test. The test measures the ability of the students about the topic of reading subject.

The test consists of pre-test and post-test, of this research is in the form of multiple choice test.

2. Observation Sheet

In order to observe the learning activity and each cycle, the researcher used an observation sheet. It is used to observe the following items:

- a. The students' attention on the teacher's explanation.
- b. The students' activeness in asking and answering the question.
- c. The students' activeness in whole class activity.
- d. The students' ability in doing the task from the teacher.
- e. The students' activeness in the group activity.

3. Documentation Sheet

The researcher used the documentation sheet to complete the research information about:

- a. The history of MAN 1 Lampung Timur.
- b. The vision and mission of MAN 1 Lampung Timur.

- f. The organization structure of MAN 1 Lampung Timur.
- g. The writing worksheet, course overviews and classroom materials of the students at MAN 1 Lampung Timur.

4. Field Note Sheet

The field note supports the data from the research. It is aimed at recording the process of teaching and learning. The field note consists of some notes on students' behavior during the teaching learning process and the weaknesses and obstacles founded in this research. Therefore, the researcher is able to see the students' progress on their writing skills. Then, it details on the teaching and learning process such as: classroom situation, classroom management, classroom interaction, classroom interaction between teacher and students, classroom interaction between students and students.

G. Data Analysis Method

Data analysis technique was used by taking the average score and the percentage of the pre-test and post-test. The researcher uses a statistical technique. In scoring the test, the students score is counted with the following formula:⁴¹

$$\bar{X} = \frac{\sum X}{n}$$

⁴¹Timothy C Urdan, Statistics in Plain English, Third Edition. (Hoboken: Taylor & Francis, 2010), 14.

Notes:

\bar{X} = The sample mean

$\sum X$ = The sum of individual score

n = The number of score in the sample

The formula to figure out the percentage of the students who pass the Minimum Mastery Criteria (MMC) in each cycle as follows:⁴²

$$P = \frac{F}{N} \times 100\%$$

Notes:

P = Percentage

F = Frequency

N = Number of observation

Moreover, to know the result the researcher compared between pre-test and post-test. The result was matched by the minimum standard in this school at least 75.

H. Indicators of Success

The indicator of students successful in English reading ability of using short story media can be seen in the criteria of students improvement in learning process as a result follows:

The research is categorized successful if 70% of the students can achieve the passing grade of English subject that is 75. In addition, 70% of the students are active in learning process.

2. The Description of Research Data

This research used classroom action research. It was conducted in two cycles: cycle I and cycle II. Each cycle consist of two meetings and each meeting takes 2x45 minutes. Each cycle comprised of planning, action, observation and reflection. In relation to manage the class the researcher made lesson plan. The action of this research was done by using short story to improve the students' reading comprehension.

a. Pre-test

The researcher conducted pre-test on Monday, January 20th, 2020.

All the students had already prepared when the teaching time came. The researcher greeted the students. The researcher told the students that the researcher would conduct the research in their class in order to know their reading comprehension before doing the action of the classroom action research. The pre-test was administrated to the students to be finished individually. The kind of the test was multiple choice consisted 10 items. Then, the students' pre-test result can be seen on the table below:

Based on the table, it could be inferred that there were 5 students (13 %) who passed the pre-test and 25 students (87 %) who failed the pre-test. The highest score was 80 and the lowest score was 50. It means that the students did not achieve the Minimum mastery criteria of subject English at MAN 1 Lampung Timur and the student's reading comprehension was low. Beside the researcher got the average score 56 in the pre-test. So that, it was the reason the researcher used Short Story Media to improve student's reading comprehension.

b. Cycle 1

1) Planning

Based on the result pre-test score, the researcher has identified and found the problems after taking student's pre-test score. After that, the researcher prepared several things related to teaching and learning process at classroom such as English subject lesson plan, the material and observation sheet that contains about list of students name and their learning activities and evaluation.

2) Acting

a) The first meeting

The first meeting was conducted on January 23th 2020 and followed by 30 students. The meeting was started by praying, greeting, checking student's attendance list, giving motivation and asking student's condition.

The post-test I was administrated to the students to be finished individually. The researcher gave reading test for students. There were 10 multiple choice. The students' post-test I result can be seen on the table below :

The highest score was 80 and the lowest score was 50. Based on the post-test I results, the researcher calculated the average grade that is 67. The criterion of students who successful in mastering the material was students who got minimum mastery criteria of subject English is 75. Then, 60% students could achieve the improvement score above 75.

3) Observing

The observation was done by researcher during teaching and learning process. The researcher observed the student's learning activities at classroom.

4) Reflecting

From the result observation in learning process in cycle I, it could be concluded that in the learning process has not achieved Minimum Mastery Criteria (MMC) of the research yet. At the end of this cycle, the researcher analyzed and calculated all the processes like students' pre-test grade and the result of students' post-test I grade. The comparison between pre-test grade and post-test I grade was as follows:

Table 4.9
The Comparison of Students' Pre-Test and Post-Test I in Cycle I

Then, the graph of comparison students' Reading Comprehension based on the result of pre-test and post-test I in cycle I could be seen as follow:

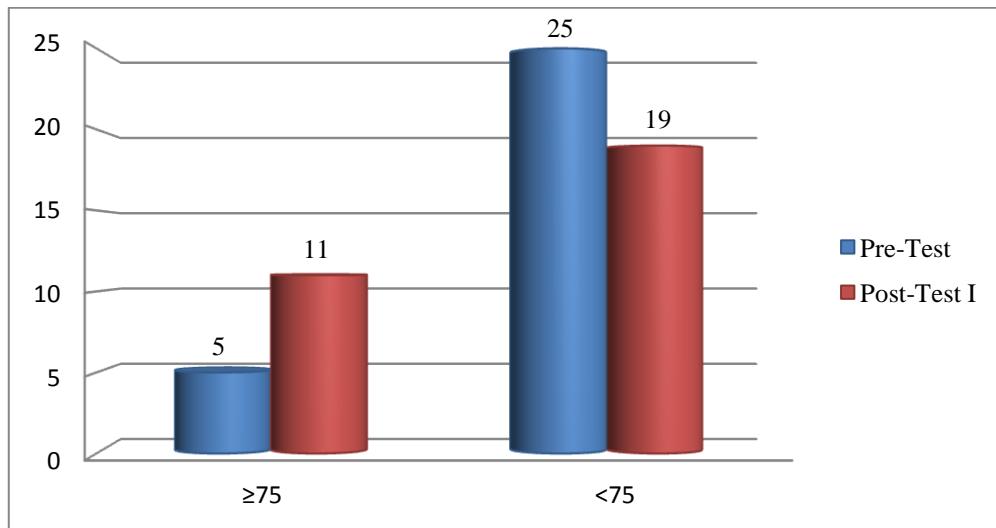

Figure 4.6 The Comparison of Percentage of the Students' Grade Completenessbased on Pre-test and post-test I

The table and the graphic above, in pre-test it could be seen that total from 30 students, it could be concluded that 12% or 5 students were able to achieve the minimum mastery criteria that is ≥ 75 . Then the students who did not achieve the minimum mastery criteria were 87% or 25 students among interval < 75 . In post-test I, it could be concluded that 40% or 11 students among the interval ≥ 75 students, was complete the minimum mastery criteria. Then those who were not able to achieve the minimum mastery criteria were 60% or 19 students among interval < 75 . The average grade of pre-test was 56 and average grade of post-test I was 67. There was improvement between pre-test and post-test I but did not fulfill the indicator of success. It could be concluded that the result was unsuccessful. Because of the indicator of success could not be achieved yet that was 70% of the total students must pass the criteria.

Regarding to the result of student's post-test I grade and the observation of student's learning activities in cycle I it caused of give a subject material was not run well, so some students could not clear to understanding the material. Some students were not satisfied because most of the students did not pay attention toward the teacher explanation and they get difficulties to answer the question and some students achieved failure in test of cycle I. Therefore, the researcher had to continue in cycle II which consists of planning, acting, observing, and reflecting

5) Cycle 2

d) Reflecting

From the result of learning process in cycle II the researcher analyzed that generally by using Short Story Media, in reading comprehension was improved.

At the end of this cycle, the researcher and the collaborator analyzed and calculated all the processes like student's post-test II grade and observation of student's learning activities. The comparison between students post-test I grade and post-test II grade could be compared on the following table.

Table 4.19
The Comparison between Post-Test I Grade and Post-Test II Grade

Then, the graph of comparison students' reading comprehension post-test I grade and post-test II grade could be seen as follow:

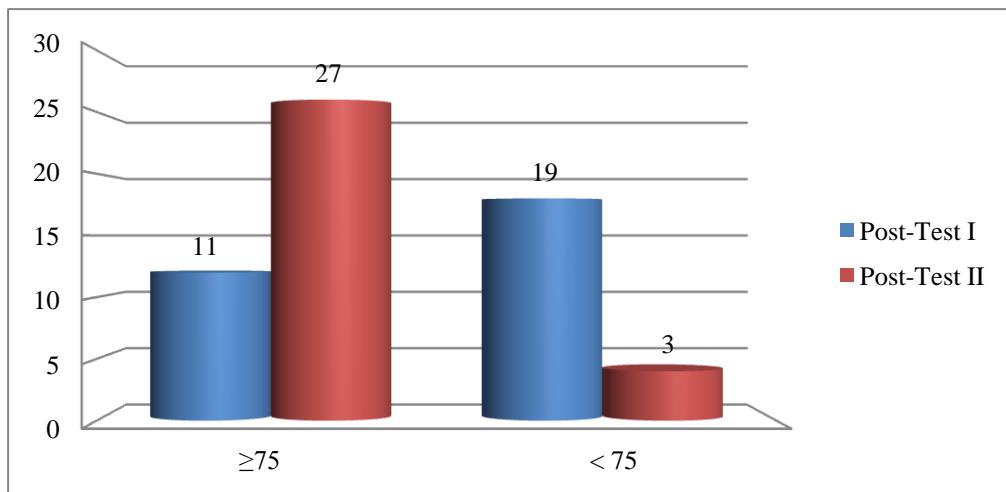

Figure 4.12 The Percentage of Comparison of Students' Grade on Post-test I and Post-test II

Based on the graphic above, it could be seen that the grade of the students in post-test II was various it could be inferred that were 27 students (87%) who passed the post-test II and 3 students (13%) who failed the post-test II. It can be seen that there was an improving from post-test I and post-test II. The average score in post-test I is 67,3. and the average score in post-test II is 79. It means that the indicator of success of this research had been achieved because there was 70% students were able to achieve grade 75. It indicated that the students' reading comprehension was improved.

Regarding to the result above, it could be inferred that this Classroom Action Research (CAR). It was successful and it would not be continue in the next cycle because of the learning process and the product of learning entirely passed the indicators of success. It means that Short Story Media improve the students' reading comprehension.

B. Discussion

The researcher used short story to make students are able to read the text in learning English and made students mastery reading comprehension. There was positive improvement about students learning activities using Short Story Media.

Based on the explanation of cycle I and cycle II, it can be shown that the use of Short Story could improve the students' reading comprehension. There is progress from the students gets grade ≥ 75 from pre-test 13% or 5 students, post-test I 40% or 11 students and post-test II become 87% or 27 students. It is investigated that there is an improvement on the students complete grade and total of grade of the students who passed the least from pre-test, post-test I, post-test II. From the explanation, the researcher concludes that the research is succesful and it can be stopped in the cycle II because the indicator of success 70% of students got grade ≥ 75 are reached.

The result of the students' learning activities in cycle I and cycle II are improve. Read and comprehend from 83% become 86%, mention the characters of the story from 37% become 80%, The students are able to answer the question based on the story from 60% become 83%. The result of students' activities in cycle I and cycle II, there are improvement in students' learning activities.

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusions

After the implementation of the Short Story Media, there was improvement in the teaching and learning process of reading as well as the students' reading comprehension. The findings of the research in Cycle 1 and Cycle 2 were presented below:

1. The implementation of the Short Story Media improved students' reading comprehension Ability. It helps the students read strategically and allowed them to have practices, identify meaning and function of the sentence.
2. The implementation of the Short Story Media improved students' learning activity. The students were encouraged to be active in giving their ideas. They discussed their reading and used the media to find out the contents in the story such as the title, beginning, plot, characters and settings to understand the text.

B. Suggestions

In connection with the conclusions and implications above, some suggestions are directed to the English teacher, the students and other researchers.

1. To English teachers

English teachers should be more creative in choosing the activities. The teachers should know what students need to improve students' problem in reading. If they want to use the Short Story Media, they should consider the situation of the class so that they can manage the class well. They also should consider on the topic of the text that influences students' enthusiasm in reading.

2. To the students

The students should manage themselves to always have positive attitude toward English lesson. They should know what is really important for them to comprehend the text. Always practicing and equipping the right reading strategy are useful to comprehend the text better and improve their vocabulary. Furthermore, they should participate more active in the process of teaching and learning. They should also manage themselves to work in pairs, in groups, or individually.

3. To other researchers

This research only deals with the use of Short Story Media to improve students' reading comprehension. Therefore, it is suggested that the other researchers may explore this media using different type of research such as experimental or correlational ones.

TELAGA WARNA

Long long ago, there was a kingdom in West Java. The kingdom was ruled by a king named His Majesty Prabu.

Prabu was a kind and wise king. But it was a pity that Prabu and his queen hadn't got any children. The queen often cried. That was why Prabu went to the jungle. There he prayed to God every day, begging for a child.

A few months later, the queen got pregnant. Nine months later, a princess was born. Prabu and Queen loved their beautiful daughter so much. They gave whatever she wanted. It made Princess turn into a very spoiled girl.

One day, the princess celebrated her 17th birthday party. Many people gathered in the palace. Then, Prabu took out a necklace which was made from gold and jewel.

"My beloved daughter, today I give you this necklace. Please, wear this necklace," said Prabu.

"I don't want to wear it! It's ugly!" shouted the princess. Then she threw the necklace. The beautiful necklace was broken. The gold and jewels were spread out on the floor. Everybody couldn't say anything. They never thought that their beloved princess would do that cruel thing. In their silence, people heard the queen crying. Every woman felt sad and began crying, too. Then, everybody was crying. Then, there was a miracle. Earth was crying.

Suddenly, from the underground, a spring emerged. It made a pool of water. Soon, the place became a big lake. The lake finally sank the kingdom.

Nowadays, people called the lake "Telaga Warna". It means "Lake of Color". On a bright day, the lake is full of color. These colors come from shadows of forest, plants, flowers, and sky around the lake. But some people said that the colors are from the princess's necklace, which spreads at the bottom of the lake.

TELAGA WARNA

Zaman dahulu, ada sebuah kerajaan di Jawa Barat. Negeri itu dipimpin oleh seorang raja. Prabu, begitulah orang memanggilnya. Ia adalah raja yang baik dan bijaksana. Tak heran, kalau negeri itu makmur dan tenteram. Tak ada penduduk yang lapar di negeri itu.

Semua sangat menyenangkan. Sayangnya, Prabu danistrinya belum memiliki anak. Itu membuat pasangan kerajaan itu sangat sedih. Penasehat Prabu menyarankan, agar mereka mengangkat anak. Namun Prabu dan Ratu tidak setuju. "Buat kami, anak kandung adalah lebih baik dari pada anak angkat," sahut mereka.

Ratu sering murung dan menangis. Prabu pun ikut sedih melihat istrinya.. Lalu Prabu pergi ke hutan untuk bertapa. Di sana sang Prabu terus berdoa, agar dikaruniai anak. Beberapa bulan kemudian, keinginan mereka terkabul. Ratu pun mulai hamil. Seluruh rakyat di kerajaan itu senang sekali. Mereka membanjiri istana dengan hadiah.

Sembilan bulan kemudian, Ratu melahirkan seorang putri. Penduduk negeri pun kembali mengirim putri kecil itu aneka hadiah. Bayi itu tumbuh menjadi anak yang lucu. Belasan tahun kemudian, ia sudah menjadi remaja yang cantik.

Prabu dan Ratu sangat menyayangi putrinya. Mereka memberi putrinya apa pun yang dia inginkan. Namun itu membuatnya menjadi gadis yang manja. Kalau keinginannya tidak terpenuhi, gadis itu akan marah. Ia bahkan sering berkata kasar. Walaupun begitu, orangtua dan rakyat di kerajaan itu mencintainya.

Hari berlalu, Putri pun tumbuh menjadi gadis tercantik di seluruh negeri. Dalam beberapa hari, Putri akan berusia 17 tahun. Maka para penduduk di negeri itu pergi ke istana. Mereka membawa aneka hadiah yang sangat indah. Prabu mengumpulkan hadiah-hadiah yang sangat banyak itu, lalu menyimpannya dalam ruangan istana. Sewaktu-waktu, ia bisa menggunakan untuk kepentingan rakyat.

Prabu hanya mengambil sedikit emas dan permata. Ia membawanya ke ahli perhiasan. "Tolong, buatkan kalung yang sangat indah untuk putriku," kata Prabu. "Dengan senang hati, Yang Mulia," sahut ahli perhiasan. Ia lalu bekerja d sebaik mungkin, dengan sepenuh hati. Ia ingin menciptakan kalung yang paling indah di dunia, karena ia sangat menyayangi Putri.

Hari ulang tahun pun tiba. Penduduk negeri berkumpul di alun-alun istana. Ketika Prabu dan Ratu datang, orang menyambutnya dengan gembira. Sambutan hangat makin terdengar, ketika Putri yang cantik jelita muncul di hadapan semua orang. Semua orang mengagumi kecantikannya.

Prabu lalu bangkit dari kursinya. Kalung yang indah sudah dipegangnya. "Putriku tercinta, hari ini aku berikan kalung ini untukmu. Kalung ini pemberian orang-orang dari penjuru negeri. Mereka sangat mencintaimu. Mereka mempersembahkan hadiah ini, karena mereka gembira melihatmu tumbuh jadi dewasa. Pakailah kalung ini, Nak,” kata Prabu.

Putri menerima kalung itu. Lalu ia melihat kalung itu sekilas. “Aku tak mau memakainya. Kalung ini jelek!” seru Putri. Kemudian ia melempar kalung itu. Kalung yang indah pun rusak. Emas dan permatanya tersebar di lantai.

Itu sungguh mengejutkan. Tak seorang pun menyangka, Putri akan berbuat seperti itu. Tak seorang pun bicara. Suasana hening. Tiba-tiba terdengar tangisan Ratu. Tangisannya diikuti oleh semua orang.

Tiba-tiba muncul mata air dari halaman istana. Mula-mula membentuk kolam kecil. Lalu istana mulai banjir. Istana pun dipenuhi air bagai danau. Lalu danau itu makin besar dan menenggelamkan istana.

Di hari yang cerah, kita bisa melihat danau itu penuh warna yang indah dan mengagumkan. Warna itu berasal dari bayangan hutan, tanaman, bunga-bunga, dan langit di sekitar telaga. Namun orang mengatakan, warna-warna itu berasal dari kalung Putri yang tersebar di dasar telaga.

The Legend of Malin Kundang

A long time ago, in a small village near the beach in West Sumatra, a woman and her son lived. They were Malin Kundang and her mother. Her mother was a single parent because Malin Kundang's father had passed away when he was a baby. Malin Kundang had to live hard with his mother.

Malin Kundang was a healthy, diligent, and strong boy. He usually went to sea to catch fish. After getting fish he would bring it to his mother, or sold the caught fish in the town. One day, when Malin Kundang was sailing, he saw a merchant's ship which was being raided by a small band of pirates. He helped the merchant. With his brave and power, Malin Kundang defeated the pirates.

The merchant was so happy and thanked to him. In return the merchant asked Malin Kundang to sail with him. To get a better life, Malin Kundang agreed. He left his mother alone. Many years later, Malin Kundang became wealthy. He had a huge ship and was helped by many ship crews loading trading goods. Perfectly he had a beautiful wife too. When he was sailing his trading journey, his ship landed on a beach near a small village. The villagers recognized him. The news ran fast in the town; "Malin Kundang has become rich and now he is here". An old woman ran to the beach to meet the new rich merchant. She was Malin Kundang's mother.

She wanted to hug him, released her sadness of being lonely after so long time. Unfortunately, when the mother came, Malin Kundang who was in front of his well dressed wife and his ship crews denied meeting that old lonely woman. For three times her mother begged Malin Kundang and for three times he yelled at her. At last Malin Kundang said to her "Enough, old woman! I have never had a mother like you, a dirty and ugly woman!" After that he ordered his crews to set sail. He would leave the old mother again but in that time she was full of both sadness and angeriness. Finally, enraged, she cursed Malin Kundang that he would turn into a stone if he didn't apologize. Malin Kundang just laughed and really set sail.

In the quiet sea, suddenly a thunderstorm came. His huge ship was wrecked and it was too late for Malin Kundang to apologize. He was thrown by the wave out of his ship. He fell on a small island. It was really too late for him to avoid his curse. Suddenly, he turned into a stone.
