The purpose of the study was to find out if this influence of make a-match strategy on the students reading skills of tenth grade SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.

This research is a type of quantitative research. Researchers have determined the problem that will be studied in this study, which focuses on reading skills. This is related to the identification of the problem that students have low motivation in learning English, especially reading, they have difficulty determining the main ideas and information of the text, and they are also not interested in the method of learning in the classroom. They are tired of every reading lesson. To collect data, researchers use tests and documentation, while to obtain student data, researchers use written tests in multiple-choice form. The study involved students in pre-tests, treatments, and post-tests. In this study, researchers used the Chi-Square formula to analyze the data.

Finally, the data proved that in the pre-test only 20% of students were able to achieve the minimum mastery criteria (KKM) and the average of the pre-test was 45.5. It can be said that the pre-test results are not satisfactory. Then, in the post-test there are 75% of students who can meet the minimum mastery criteria (KKM) and the average post-test is 80.5. INTRODUCTION

A. Background of Study

English is the language of the world and the knowledge of the language makes a person, a citizen of the world. Furthermore, English is used as a communication to convey their ideas, information, and feeling. Realizing the importance of English, the government of Indonesia has declared English as the first foreign language which is taught in Indonesia, starting from junior high school until university levels.

There are four skills of the Language that must be mastered by all Language learners. They are listening, speaking, reading and writing¹. Listening and reading are receptive skills, speaking and writing are productive skills. Moreover, reading has important roles in education. In reading, the students should be able to understand the text. In addition, the students can determine the main ideas, and supporting details in a text. By having reading achievement, the students are expected to get the new information, knowledge, and also idea in the text. When readers look at the text and able to interpret the meaning of that written symbol, therefore it is a true reading activity.

Reading activities and assignments are very important in the world of education, but the other world also exists, such as work, science, and many more, because this activity will determine the student quality. Reading is a great tool for improving your English skills. By reading, people can apply their knowledge when speaking in English. Furthermore, reading is an activity of receiving, analyzing and interpreting what readers do to get the message the researcher wants to convey through written media. In reading, students must be able to understand the text. Most of them can read the text but do not understand it. The students had difficulty understanding the contents of the text.

The function of reading is to increase the level of intelligence and cultivate reasoning power. In addition, by reading people can encourage, move themselves to work which is supported by various kinds of insights and vocabulary choices. This reading these activities are carried out to gain practical knowledge in life.

Learning reading in the classroom requires a variety of approaches, strategies, methods and techniques capable of assessing individual differences and student performance levels Student activities encourage reading skills and practice the reading fluency of students in learning activities at school, at home, and at home. community environment. The use of appropriate learning methods will help determine the effectiveness and efficiency in reading instructional texts. For that it is necessary a learning method that can make students interested and active during the classroom learning but also does not interfere with the quality learn on my own.

In school, On the other hand, the teacher uses a conventional method in teaching reading so the students are bored. The students also have less vocabulary and are difficult to pronounce. They should practice reading English text to make their reading skill better. The other way to solve this problem is the teacher using an interesting method to make the students interest to read English. There are many methods for teaching reading. Make a Match is one of the strategies. In this case, the students make a match while studying a certain topic in a comfortable situation. A strategy explains the general components of instructional material and procedure to get purpose which prepares by the teacher.

Based on the pre-survey researcher's observation which had been done by the researcher in SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro on Mei, 27th 2021, the result of the students reading skill of the tenth grade was not satisfied. Many students still have low skill in reading. The following table shows the students' reading skill scores.

Based on the problem above, the writer would like to conduct the research entitled: “THE INFLUENCE OF MAKE A-MATCH STRATEGY ON THE STUDENTS READING SKILLS OF THE TENTH GRADE OF SMA MUHAMMADIYAH AHMAD DAHLAN METRO”.

B. Problem Identification

Based on the background discussed above, the researcher would like to identify the problem as follow:

E. Objective and Benefits of the study

1. Objective of the research

The objective of this research is to find out whether there is can Influence Of Make A-Match Strategy The Students Reading Skills Of The Tenth Grade Of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.

F. Prior Research

There are some previous researchs regarding the Make A-Match Technique. First, a resseach written by Feranda Tiara Sandita. Entitled “The Influence of Using Make A Match Technique Towards Students’ Speaking Ability At The First Semester of The Tenth Grade Of MA AL-HIKMAH BANDAR LAMPUNG IN THE ACADEMIC YEAR OF 2018/2019”.²

The research analyzed the data by using independent sample t-test, the result was that there was an influence of using make a match technique towards students’ speaking ability at the first semester of the tenth grade of MA AL-Hikmah Bandar Lampung in the academic year of 2018/2019.

The second prior research was done by Irma Khairunnisa who conducted the same research on the topic of Make a Match Strategy on students reading comprehension. The title of her research is “The Effect of

Make A Match Strategy On Students Reading Comprehension of Descriptive Text”³

The writer used purposeful sampling technique to choose the sample from the whole students or population. The method used in this research was a quantitative method.

The third research by Andi Mirayanti, this research about the final project is “Teaching Reading Comprehension By Using Make A Match Method of The Tenth Grade Students in Man Palopo”

This research employed an experimental method. It aimed for giving description about the use of make a match method in teaching reading comprehension of the tenth grade students in Man Palopo. After collected data by conducting the pre-test, treatments, and post-test which involve some instruments, the research then would focus on the data analysis.⁴

Like the previous researches above the researcher conducts this research entitled “The influence of Make A-Match Strategy On The Students Reading Skills Of The Tenth Grade Of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.” Quite Similarity, this research is conducted to know are there any positive and significant influences of using Make A-Match Strategy on the student’s reading skill. The researcher uses quantitative method in data collection. The researcher uses Make A-Match Strategy in learning class with the purpose the students reading skill improved or at least any significant and positive influences. The researcher focuses on skill reading aspect of the student. Hence reading skill is very important to understand English text

CHAPTER II

THEORETICAL REVIEW

A. The Concept of Reading Skill

1. The Concept of Reading

a. The Definition of Reading

Reading is a complex undertaking and an impressive achievement as demonstrated by a century of research (Afflerbach and Cho, in press; Huey, 1908; RAND Reading Study Group, 2002).⁵ Meanwhile, Reading is rapid, which means that readers should maintain flow of information at a sufficient rate to make connections and inferences vital to comprehension.⁶ The reader has a purpose for reading, whether it is for entertainment, information, or research. Reading is flexible, meaning that the reader employs a range of strategies to read efficiently.

Moreover, Gary Woolley assumes reading is the process of making meaning from the text.⁷ It means that a reader needs reading to take meaning contained or conclusion in the text. In the other words, reading must be supported with many important elements such as culture context and linguistics competence.

⁵ Peter Afflerbach, dkk. Clarifying Differences Between Reading Skills and Reading Strategies. The Reading Teacher, 61(5), pp. 364-373.

⁷ Gary Woolley, Reading Comprehension: Assisting Children with Learning Difficulties.(Springer Dordrecht Heidelberg London New York 2011), p 15.

Therefore, the ESL teachers must facilitate students to learn the reading skill in order to help the students engaged with the text they read in a meaningful way. Reading is not simple since it deals with many related elements that support reading. It is in line with the definition of reading stated by Mike Fleming and David Stevens who point out that reading is at once a highly focused activity and one rooted in an extremely broad cultural context, with the potential to take one or several of many different forms.⁸

Next, Snow defines reading as the process of simultaneously extracting and constructing meaning through interaction and involvement with written language.⁹ Based on all definition of reading above, it is concluded that reading is an important language skill that deals with the complex and unnatural process because it is influenced by some important related elements such as linguistics competence of the reader, and cultural context.

b. The Definition of Skill

The essence of reading skill. Linda J. Dorn and Carla Soffos skill is a complex process regulated by cognitive, emotional, perceptual, and social experiences.¹⁰ It is clear that the result of skill is only known by the readers who cannot manipulate whether they are able to comprehend the text or not.

Meanwhile, Karen Trankersley defines skill as the center of reading that requires making meaning from words when listening, speaking, reading, and writing.¹¹ In other words, it is an ability that is intended for an act that useful and good. So it can be inferred that skill is an ability of person which acquire them in complex process for an act that is useful and good.

Several source, mention the definiton of skill such as, skill is one of those social science words in common parlance with many meanings, numerous synonyms such as "ability", "competence", "knack", "aptuide", and varied imprecise translation in other language.¹² Based on the definition of the experts above, it can be conluded that reading skill is looking and get for the information suggested from the text or written language, the readers understand all of the reading text selection.

c. The Definition of Reading Skill

Reading Skill is an individual's standing on some reading assessment.¹³ Skilled readers are those who score above some standard on this assessment; readers of low skill are those who score below some standard. In the other words, reading skill is the process of comprehensive forming and deciding meaning as a result of a progressive interaction between the readers and the text they read.

In academic field, reading aims at some things new to learn. Learning will be successful when there is a change in mind by knowing something from unknown. After knowing something, students have to understand the thing so that they can apply the knowledge in a real life or at least they can pass their school exam. To gain this successful process, the students should have a skill to bring them into a good comprehension in reading a text. Definitional component of reading skill which is an individual's standing on some reading assessment.¹⁴

According to Brown, there are two major skills of reading. They are micro-skills and macro-skills. The readers, in micro-skills, must have skills when they deal with graphemes and orthographic patterns and linguistic signals.¹⁵

According to Gordon wainwright, reading skill is a complex process which comprises the successful or unsuccessful use of many abilities.¹⁶ It means that reading skill is a complicated process that involves many abilities that cause the readers understand the meaning of the text well or badly. Based on all of the definition of reading skill above, it is concluded that reading skill is a language skill that requires the readers' ability in responding and relating the linguistic structures of the text, in drilling metacognitive control over the content of the text, and in relating previous knowledge related on the content and vocabulary of the text.

2. The Models of Reading

There are some models of reading, as follow:¹⁷

a. The Top-down Model

In top-down is processing the readers or listeners gets a general view of the reading or listening passage by, in some way, absorbing the overall picture.

b. The Bottom-up Model

In Bottom-up is processing, on the other hand, the readers or listeners focuses on individual words and phrases, and achieves understanding by stringing these details elements together to build up a whole. In other words, Bottom-up is processing of the readers understand the linguistics signal.

3. The strategies of Reading Skill

There are some important reading skill strategies explained by Meduranda, as follow:¹⁸

¹⁷ Jeremy Hermer, The Practice of English Language Teaching, (Longman : Longman), p.20.

¹⁸ Evan Moors CORP, Daily Reading Comprehension, (USA, Evan Moor Publishers, 2010), p.6.

a. Making Connections

Students make connections to the text to aid their comprehension. Connections can be made to personal experiences or to things the students have seen or read.

b. Visualization

Students make mental images of what they are reading. They learn to look for vivid language, including concrete nouns, active verbs, and strong adjectives.

c. Organization

Students learn to find the organizational pattern of a text. This allows them to anticipate what they are reading and helps them focus on the author's central message or important ideas.

d. Determining Important Information

Students learn to categorize information based on whether or not it supports an author's central message or is important for a specific purpose.

e. Asking Questions

Students learn to ask questions before reading to set a purpose for reading, during reading to identify when their comprehension breaks down, or after reading as a way to check their understanding of a passage.

f. Monitoring Comprehension

Students learn to pay attention to their own reading process and notice when they are losing focus or when comprehension is breaking down. They then can employ another strategy to help them overcome their difficulty.

4. The Criteria of Reading Skill

According to Brown there are some criteria commonly used in indicating students' reading skill, those are.

- a. Main idea (topic)
- b. Expression/ idiom/ phrases in context
- c. Inference (implied detail)
- d. Grammatical features
- e. Detail (scanning for a specially stated detail)
- f. Excluding facts not written (unstated details)
- g. Supporting ideas
- h. Vocabulary in context

5. Measurement of reading Skill

To know the achievement of reading comprehension abilities should be measured by using the assessment of reading. There are the measurements of reading Skill related to Grenall and Swan, as follows:¹⁹

¹⁹ Simon Greenall and Michael Swan, Effective Reading: Reading Skill for Advanced students: Teacher's book, (USA: Cambridge University Press, 1994), p.34.

Criteria of Reading Skill

No.	Criteria	Score
1.	Clarity : Students can read the text clearly, comprehensible and accurately	0-25
2.	Voice / Noun Verbal Communication : Pronunciation, Intonation, and accuracy was clear, and expression were used to enhance communication.	0-15
3.	Fluency : Students noted as a facilitator helping the conversation were evident. There may have been a few pauses.	0-25
4.	Comprehension : The Students Fully understood the text and question asked and answered correctly.	0-35
Total		100

The classification of the score

No	Range Score	Ability Level
1.	70-100	High
2.	51-69	Statis factory
3.	0-50	Low

Based on the indicator above, the preparation process of reading skill test must considered completeness of the indicator of reading skill.

B. Theoretical Description Make A- Match

1. Definiton of Make A- Match Strategy

Make A Match is one of the co-operative learning strategy developed and introduced by Lorna Curran in 1994. According to Curran the basic principle of Make A-Match is the students find or match a partner while they are learning a concept or a particular topic in an interesting classroom atmosphere.²⁰

Make A Match is one the strategies. In this case, the students make a match while to study the certain topic in the comfortable situation.²¹ A strategy explain about the general components of instructional material and procedure to get purpose which prepare by the teacher.

Make A-Match type can make student interest, increase and interfere to the interactive situation in the class. It is why the teacher should use “Make A-Match” the kind of cooperative learning method to make the students’ easier to comprehend the text.

Make A Match as one of the co-operative learning techniques that is used with pairs²². The students are put into 2 groups, group A and group B. The number in each group depends on the number of cards prepared. Each student get a card. Group A gets question (topic) cards; while group B gets the answer cards. When they have already found their matches, they can report it to the teacher.²³ Students are more active and happy to learning (by using make a match).

In the teaching-learning process, the teacher delivers the lesson in front of the class to choose the sub-table teaching strategy, because strategy can influence the result of teaching. That is why teachers have to use implementation strategies for teaching material. In other words by applying the sub table strategy the students will be easy to understand what the teacher conveyed, the student can be motivation to learn the material that thought the teacher and the students are not boring or surfeited.

2. The steps of Applying Make A- Match

Here are the steps in Applying Make A-Match as follows:²⁴

- a. The teacher prepares some cards that contain some concepts or a suitable topic for review session, a part is contains question and the other is the answer.
- b. Every student gets a card.
- c. Every student thinks the answer or the question from the card that they hold.
- d. Every student finds their partner that has a matching card with his card.
- e. Every student who finds their suitable card before the time up will get a point.

- f. After the first session, the card is shuffled, so the students will get the different card in the next session. It is continued until this activity is ended.
- g. Teacher together with the students make a conclusion from the material that have been given by teacher.

3. The Advantages of Make A- Match

- a. The students looking for the couple while learning about a concept or topic in a pleasant atmosphere.
- b. Each student can be directly involved in answering a question given to them in the form of a card.
- c. It can increase the students' creativity through matching the cards.
- d. It can help avoid students being bored during the teaching-learning process.
- e. Student cooperation will emerge dynamically.
- f. There is dynamic mutual help between the students.
- g. It can create a more interesting classroom atmosphere.

4. The Disadvantages of Make A- Match

- a. Requires guidance from the teacher to conduct the activity.
- b. The time needed to be limited, students is not let play too much in the learning process.
- c. Teachers need to prepare adequate materials and tools.
- d. Will create noise and crowds that are not controlled.

C. Theoretical Framework and Paradigm

1. Theoretical Framework

There are two variables in this research. They are independent variable (X) and dependent variable (Y). The independent variable (X) is Make A Match strategy and the dependent variable (Y) is reading skill. In this study there are two variables, the dependent variable is error pronunciation at the Make A-Match Strategy and independent variable is students reading skill. Reading skill is the process of comprehensive forming and deciding meaning as a result of a progressive interaction between the readers and the text they read.

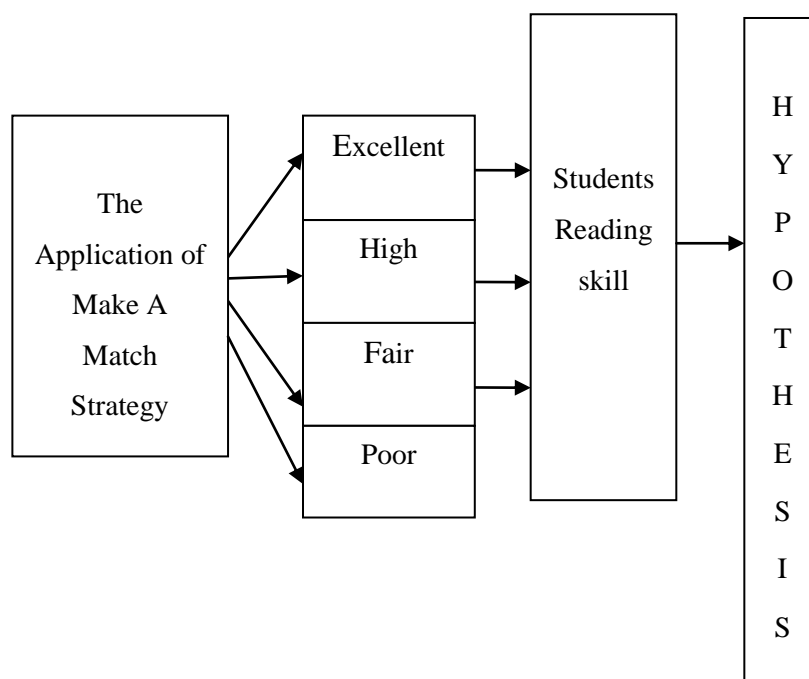

Based on the theories used in this chapter, the writer assume that Make A-Match Strategy is an effective strategy. One of the qualities of this strategy is the student make a group and students can find information with Make A-Match Strategy, with thus the students will be more active in learning.

2. Paradigm

Based on the theoretical framework above the researcher describes the paradigm as following:

The Paradigm of the research

Based on the paradigm above, students Reading skill has an important to read the text in the class, and the writer assumes that of influence make a match strategy is high, the students reading skill is high, so any positive effect and significant of make a match strategy toward the student reading skill. And if using Make A-Match strategy is low, the student reading skill is low, so there is not any positive influence and significant of make a match strategy toward the student reading skill.

D. Hypothesis

Based on theoretical framework and paradigm above, the writer formulates the hypothesis as follows:

1. Hypothesis Formulation

a. Alternative hypothesis (H_a)

H_a : there is a positive and significant influence of using Make A-Match strategy on The Students Reading Skills of The Tenth Grade of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.

b. Null hypothesis (H_0)

H_0 : there is no a positive and significant influence of using Make A-Match strategy on The Students Reading Skills of The Tenth Grade of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.

Statistical Hypothesis

IF: $F_o > F_t$, H_a is accepted and H_0 is rejected.

IF: $F_o < F_t$, H_a is rejected and H_0 is accepted.

CHAPTER III

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

A. Research Design

Research design is quantitative research. (Cooper, Heron, and Heward, 2007) Quantitative design is applied behavior analysis or single-subject experiment in which an experimental treatment is administered over time to a single individual or a small number of individuals.²⁵ The researcher used one class in this research as an experimental special treatment through Make a Match Strategy. The researcher gave assignment like a passage and then students used make a match strategy to know the question and answer. So, it was to identify The Influence Of Make A-Match Strategy On The Students Reading Skills of The Tenth Grade of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.

The researcher used one class in this research as an experimental special treatment through Make A-Match strategy. It means that the researcher involved herself in the teaching learning process. Finally, the result of the data collecting is classified and analyzed to know The Influence of Make A-Match Strategy On The Students Reading Skills of The Tenth Grade of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.

B. Operational Definition of Variables

Variable is the condition or characteristics when experiment can manipulation, control or observation. Variable in this research are Make a Match strategy and reading skill. Based on the statement above, the operational defines as follows:

1. Independent Variable

The independent variable is the variable that affects the dependent variable. The independent variable in this study is the make a match strategy. The Make a Match strategy can be interpreted as a reading technique to provide paths and knowledge for students in knowing reading skills. In this study, students can read the text fluently by using Make A-Match.

2. Dependent Variable

Dependent variable is the variable which is observed and measured to determine the effect of independent variable. Dependent variable of this research is reading skill. It is can be defined as knowledge in identification the text that students have been read. This variable was measured by giving written test. The criteria of measurement the dependent variable are:

- a. Be able to find the main idea from the text.
- b. Be able to The students able to mention main topic of the text.
- c. The students able to find specific information of the text.
- d. The students able to find reference of the text and deduce of the meaning (vocabulary).

C. The Population, Sample and Sampling Technique

1. Population

According to Donal Ary e.al population is defined as all members of any well-defined class of people, events or subject.²⁶ Marczyk et.al defines population is “all individuals of interest to the researcher”.²⁷ So, populations is all members that will be observed. The population of the research is the students of the tenth grade of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.

2. Sample

According to Marczyk et.al, Sample is representative of population.²⁸ Then, Donal Ary states that sample is portion of population. So, Sample is the small group of population that will be researched. Based on the explanation above, the writer will take 1 class as the experimental class. The sample of this research as respondent was X MIPA IBNU SINA that consists of 20 students.

3. Sampling Technique

In getting the sample of the research, the researcher used purposive cluster sampling technique. It means that the researcher had to purpose a class depend on some goals. The writer chooses X MIPA IBNU SINA because this class based on data pre-survey got low score.

D. Data Collecting Technique

In collecting data, the researcher uses the following:

1. Test

The test is used to know the score of the students reading skill. In that test, the researcher did pre-test and post-test. The purpose of test of this research is to know the effect of using Make A-Match strategy in teaching students reading skill. The type of this test was written test that consist of 10 questions. The score of each number of the questions is 10. So, If the students can answer all of the question correctly, they will get 100 score. Then, if the students answer the question incorrectly they will get 0 score. The time of the test is 45 minutes.

a. Pre-test

The researcher gave pre-test to the students to get their reading skill before treatment. The purpose of the pre-test was to know how far the students' reading skill.

b. Post-post

The post-test conducted after giving the treatment. It was to find out whether there is significant different between pre-test and post test.

2. Documentation

The researcher used observation method to get the complete data about the profile of the school, the condition of the school, teachers and the students, and the facilities in SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.

E. Research Instrument

Creswell defines instrument is a tool measuring, observing, or documenting quantitative data²⁹. There were 3 kinds of instruments; were documentation guidance, instrument blueprint, and instrument calibration. The research instrument in this research was described as follow:

1. Documentation Guidance

- a. The condition of the school.
- b. The condition of teacher, employers, and students.
- c. The history of the school.
- d. The location of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.
- e. The pictures during the teaching learning.

2. Instrument Blueprint

Instrument blueprint is the way to get the data that will useful for the researcher to collage information from the field. The instrument included the test. The kind of the test was written test. The researcher used English text to be research instrument. The instrument used to measure the students' reading skill as bellow:

²⁹ John W Creswell, Educational Research. p. 15

Table 5The Instrument Blueprint of Pre-Test and Post-Test

No.	Variable	Indicators	Items	Form
1.	Independent Variable (X) Make A-Match Strategy.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) The students have competence to reading skills by using Make A-Match Strategy. 2) The students more active in English Class 3) The students can read meticulously and carefully the text in reading skill. 4) The students can learn in their group to solve their problem when learning reading skills. 	1-10	Questionnaire
2.	Dependent Variable (Y) Reading Skills	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) The students able to mention main idea of each paragraph. 2) The students able to mention main topic of the text. 3) The students able to find specific information of the text. 4) The students able to find reference of the text and deduce of the meaning (vocabulary). 	1-10	Multiple-Choice

3. Instrument Calibration

Instrument calibration is scale of measurement which will be used to screening or examination of instrument items that made by researcher. The researcher used objective test. The researcher composed the instrument based on the subject matter content which will be researched. The instrument that was composed represents the subject that has been measured. The test which was given to the students was written test.

a. Validity

The researcher should know the validity of the test to know whether the test have a good validity or not. Validity refers to “benefit of the test not to test itself. Test in valid if the measure what it purpose to measure.

b. Reliability

Reliability is the extent to which a test produces consistent result when administered in the same conditions. In other word, whether it consistent predictability and accuracy.

F. Data Analysis Technique

In applying experimental research to find out the differences between two samples is utilized Chi-Square formulation. The formula of Chi-Square was used to find out the differences of significant between the frequencies which used to observe and the frequencies in hope. The researcher analyzed the data by using Chi-Square.³⁰The formulation of Chi-Square:

The formulation of Chi-Square:

$$x^2 = \sum \left(\frac{(Fo - Fe)^2}{Fe} \right)$$

Note:

x^2 = value of chi square

Fo = observed frequency

Fe = expected frequency

The Students' Pre-Test Reading Skill Result of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro

Based on the table of frequency distribution above, it can be inferred that from 20 students as the research samples there were 17 students who got the score below the Minimum Mastery Criteria (KKM), Which is 80. There were 1 student who got the score of 90-100 or 5%. Furthermore, there were 2 students who got the score of 80-89 or 10%. For the students who got the score of 70-79 or 5% were 1 student, and than there were 4 students who got the score of 60-69 or 20%, and the students who got score 2 students who got the score of 50-59 or 10% and 10 students who got score 40-49 or 50%.

It can be concluded, most of students got low score in reading, it means the score was unsatisfied.

From the result of pre-test, the researcher found the students' problems was in Reading Skill. These problem can be seen by the test that has been given. Many students got low or bad score in this test and little student students got good score in pre-test.

b. The Result Of The Students Post-Test

The researcher was conducted the post test on November 18th, 2021. The researcher has done the post test to know is there any The Influence of Make A-Match Strategy On The Students Reading Skills Of The Tenth Grade Of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro. The post test which is used in this research is multiple choiche consist of 10 items. The result of post test can be identified as follows:

The Students' Post-Test Reading Skill Result of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro

Based on the table of frequency distribution above, it can be inferred that from 20 students as the research samples there were 5 students who got the score below the Minimum Mastery Criteria (KKM), Which is 80. There was 6 students who got the score of 90-100 or 30%. Furthermore, there was 9 students who got the score of 80-89 or 45%. For the students who got the score of 70-79 or 5% were 1 students, than the students who got the score of 60-69 or 15% were 3 than, there was 0 students who got the score of 50-59 or 0% and there were 1 students who got the score of 40-49 or 5%.

So, the result of post-test was categorized into good category eventhough some of students were still lack in Reading Skill, but it was good because they had good effort in Reading.

B. Hypothesis Testing

After applying the observation and test the method, the researcher analyzed the data by using analysis of chi-square in order to prove whether there is a significant influence of Make A-Match strategy on the students reading skills of the tenth grade of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro, as follows (Ha) is accepted, if there is a positive and significant influence of using Make A-Match Strategy On The Students Reading Skills. And (Ho) is rejected, if if there is no a positive and significant influence using Make A-Match Strategy On The Students Reading Skills.

1. Putting the data into the formula Chi-Square (χ^2)

After administering the written test method, the researcher analyzed the data by using of Chi-Square (χ^2) with two variables in order to prove whether there is a positive and significant influence of Make A-Match Strategy On The Students Reading Skills Of The Tenth Grade Of Sma Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro as followed:

From the data above, the value of Chi-square was 9,6. Then, to know the critical value of chi-square the reseacher firstly counted df, it was degree of freedom. The formulation of df:

$$\begin{aligned} Df &= (c-1) (r-1) \\ &= (3-1) (2-1) \\ &= 2 \end{aligned}$$

Note :

Df = degree of freedom

C = column

R = row

Level of significant	5%	1%
Df 2	5,9914	9,210

The degrees of freedom is 2. So, the values of f_t on degrees of freedom are 5% = 5,991 and 1% = 9,210. From data above shown the comparison of f_o with f_t was : $9,210 < 9,6 > 5,991$ in 5% and 1% was have significance influence. It means that alternatif hypothesis (H_a) which explains “there is positive and significant influence of using Make A-Match startegy on the students reading skills is accepted , and (H_o) is rejected. It can be concluded that there is positive and significant influence of using Make A-Match strategy on the students reading skills.

C. Interpretations

The writer formulated f_o to f_t as follows:

1. If “ $f_o > f_t$, H_a is accepted and H_o is rejected.
2. If “ $f_o < f_t$, H_a is rejected and H_o is accepted.

Based on the data above, the value of chi-square was 9,6 . Then, the data confirmed that “ $f_o = 9,6$ is higher than “ $f_t=5,991$ in 5% and 9,210 in 1%. Therefore, it can be concluded that H_a is accepted and H_o is rejected. It means that “there is a positive and significant influence of MakeA-Match strategy On The Students Reading Skill Of The Tenth Grade Of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.

D. Discussions

During the research, the students were interested in learning process. All students always attended the class from the first treatment until the last treatment. Most of them were able to be good reader than before using Make A-Match Strategy.

The researcher assumed that teaching and learning by using Make A-Match strategy could help students in learning process, especially in Reading. By using Team Make A-Match strategy they could learn with their friends who understand about the material. Here, they could share what they did not understand and this method could make the students comfortable. So it has proved that Make A-Match strategy could influence the students' Reading Skill result especially for the students of the tenth grade of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro.

After treatments, there is a significant influence of the students' Reading Skill result especially for the students of the tenth grade of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro. In fact, it showed that the students score changed. Before the treatment most of students got low score it was about 16 students and after the treatment, the students who got low score only 4 students. Therefore, it could be inferred that the method which was applied made influence to the student's Reading Skill score.

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

Reading Skill is an individual's standing on some reading assessment. Skilled readers are those who score above some standard on this assessment; readers of low skill are those who score below some standard. In the other words, reading skill is the process of comprehensive forming and deciding meaning as a result of a progressive interaction between the readers and the text they read.

In this research the researcher has used Make A-Match strategy, it will be able to influence and increase the student's reading skill and made the students to be more active in learning process. So, the result of reading skill can be agreed with the rule is transfer information from transmitter to receiver.

The researcher assumed that Make A-Match strategy influenced reading skill. Based on the reserach result the researcher had been conducted the test to 20 students of SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro as the research sample. The researcher had conducted the research in SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan is located in Rejo Mulyo, Metro Selatan. The result of the data analysis can be concluded the Degree of freedom (df) of this reserach is 2. The value of chi-square was 9,6 . Then, the data confirmed that “ $f_o = 9,6$ is higher than “ $f_t = 5,991$ in 5% and 9,210 in 1%.

Therefore, it can be concluded that there is a positive and significant influence of Make A-Match Strategy on the students' Reading Skill of the tenth grade SMA Muhammadiyah Ahmad Dahlan Metro. It means Make A-Match Strategy made students more active in learning process and they could understand the material easily.

B. Suggestion

The result of this research shows that Make A-Match Strategy hoped to be a teaching method to implemented in Reading class, because it makes the teaching and learning process to be more effective. Nevertheless, this method had some weakness. So that the researcher would like to propose some suggestions, they are as follows:

1. Before implementing Make A-Match Strategy, the teacher hoped explain clearly about the procedure of Make A-Match so that the students not confuse while implement this method.
2. The teacher suggested to allocate the time accurately because when divide group or implement the method it spend many time.
3. The class usually becomes very noisy while implemented this method. So, he teacher expected give attention to the students and manage the class optimally so that the class becomes conducive.
