Evaluation Report

General Comments
The study identifies the effectiveness of the integrated mind mapping and carousel feedback technique in teaching writing. The method to collect and interpret data is formulated well, however, the paper can be significantly improved.

Advantage & Disadvantage
Advantages: Design of the data collection and method, ideation of mind mapping and carousel feedback.
Disadvantages: Organization of the paper can be improved; the paper is not very substantial with just 21 sample points.

How to improve
1. The language of the paper can be improved. There are several instances of awkward sentence constructions.
2. A section of limitation should be created, as the inferences are drawn from 21 data points and the focus is limited to five pairs.
